Herr, mein Herz ist nicht stolz, nicht hochmütig blicken meine Augen

A 3D scene with a blue sky, green ground, and a pink cylinder. The sky is a solid blue color. The ground is a solid green color. A pink cylinder is positioned in the lower center of the scene. The cylinder has a light pink top surface and a darker pink side surface. The text "Ich gehe nicht um mit Dingen, die mir zu wunderbar und zu hoch sind" is written in white on the side of the cylinder.

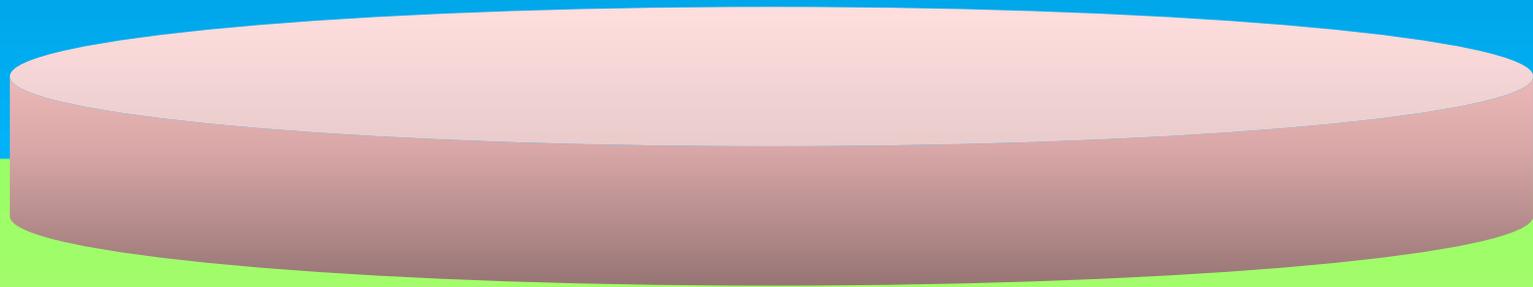

Ich gehe nicht um mit Dingen, die mir zu wunderbar und zu hoch sind

The image features a 3D illustration of two concentric pink cylinders. The larger cylinder is in the background, and a smaller one is in the foreground, both rendered with soft shading to give them a three-dimensional appearance. They are positioned on a green field that transitions into a light orange ground at the bottom. The background is a clear blue sky. The text "Ich ließ meine Seele ruhig werden und still" is centered in white font across the middle of the scene.

Ich ließ meine Seele ruhig werden und still wie ein kleines Kind bei der Mutter ist meine Seele still in mir

Israel, harre auf den Herrn von nun an bis in Ewigkeit!
