

Versuchung Jesu in der Wüste

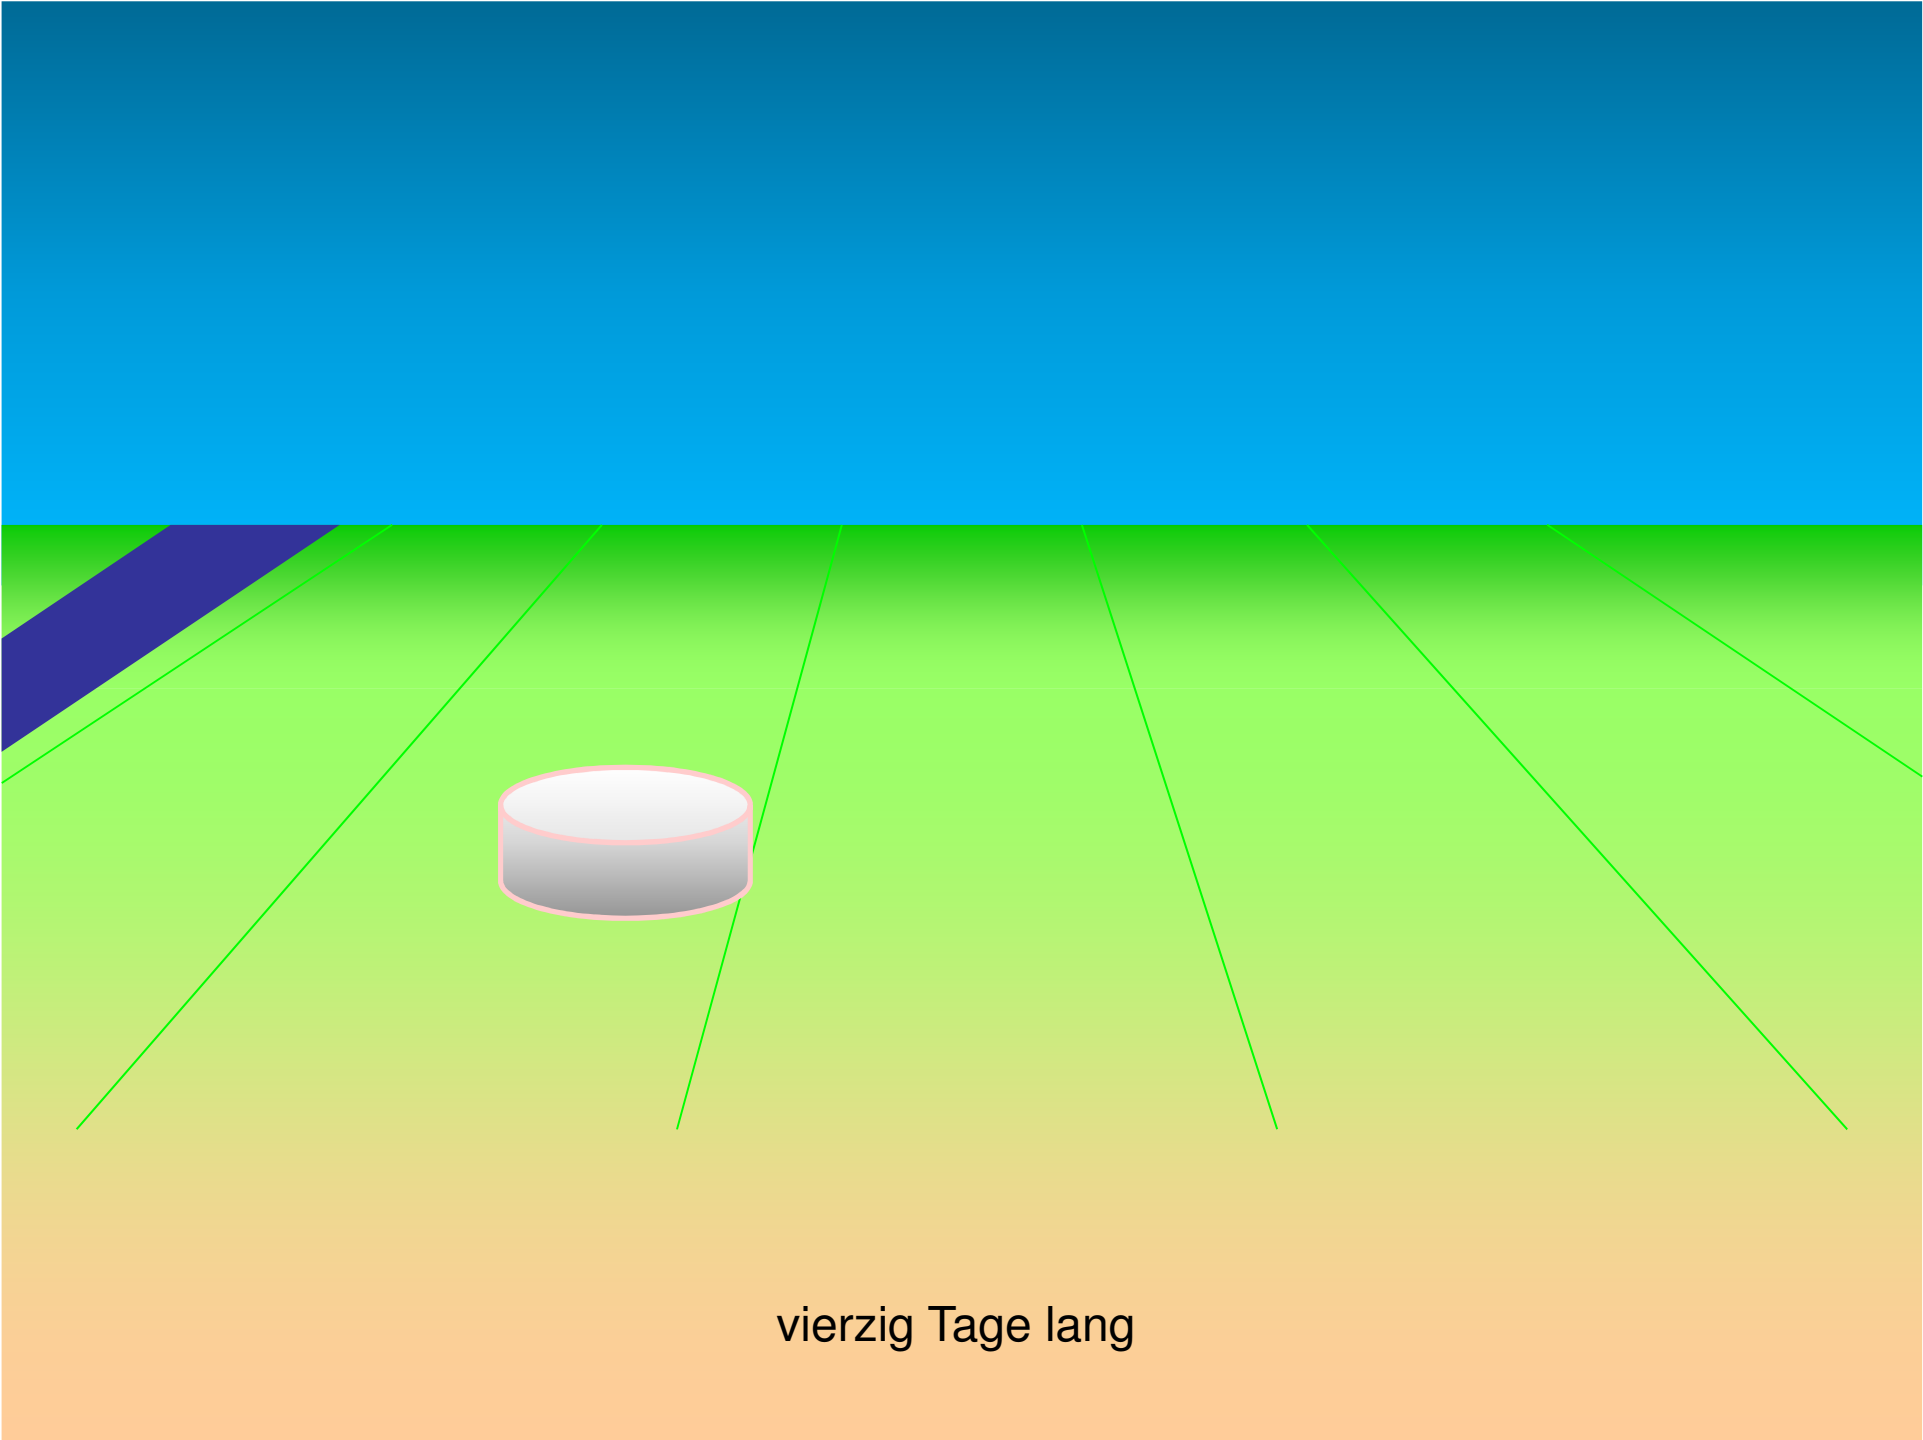

2013 02 17 Evangelium Lukas 4,1-13

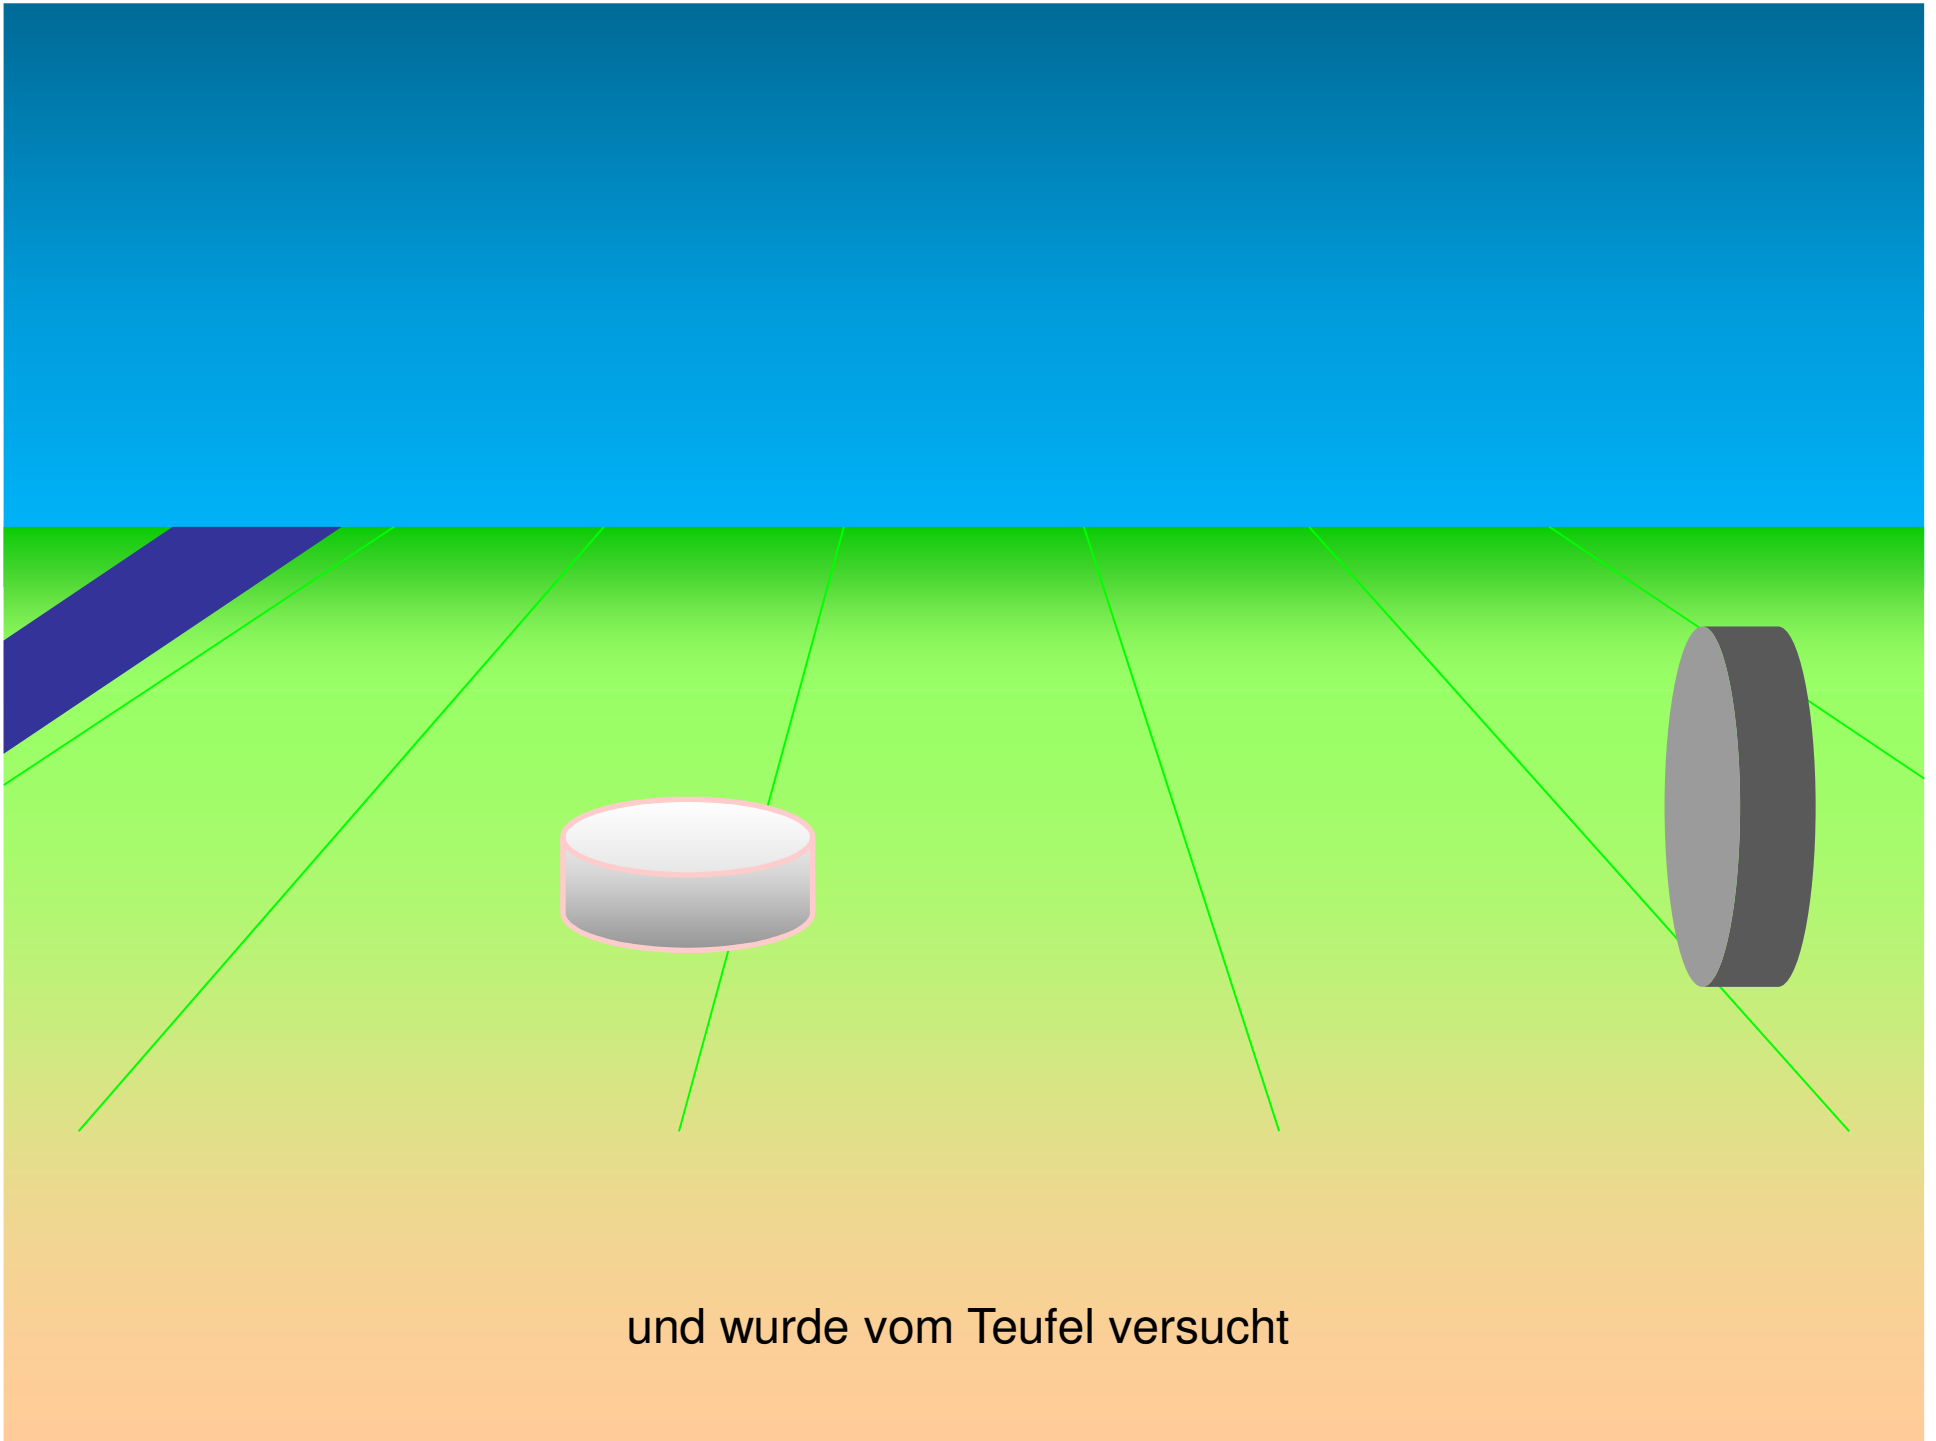

Voll des Heiligen Geistes kehrte Jesus vom Jordan zurück und wurde vom Geist durch die Wüste geführt

vierzig Tage lang

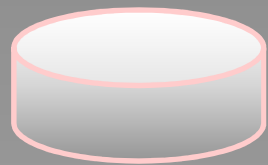

und wurde vom Teufel versucht

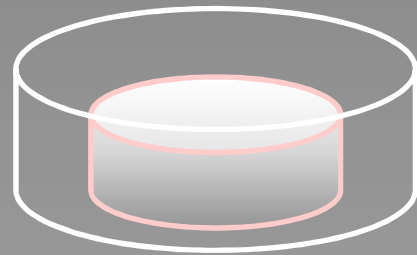

er aß nichts in jenen Tagen

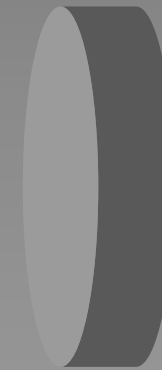

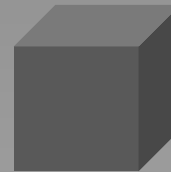

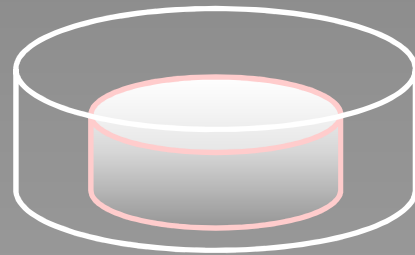

und als sie vorüber waren hungerte ihn

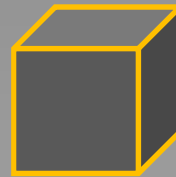

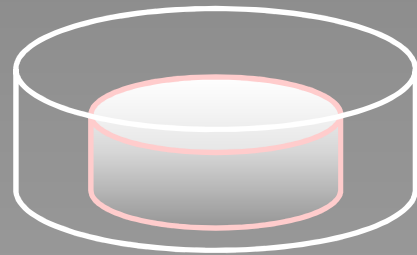

Da sprach zu ihm der Teufel:

Wenn du Gottes Sohn bist

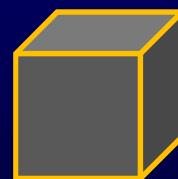

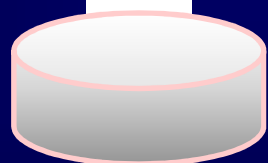

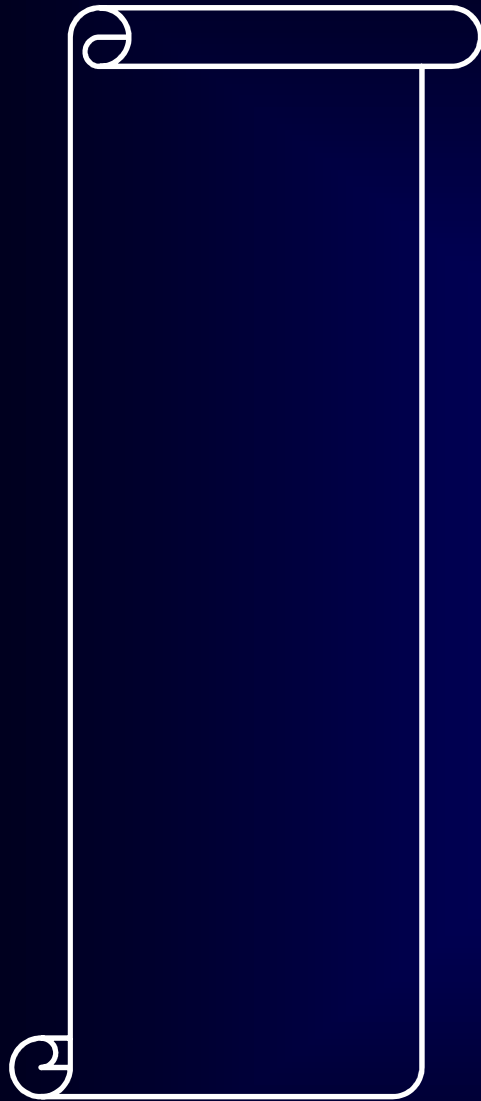

dann befiel diesem Steine

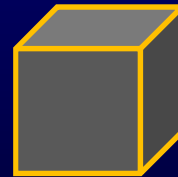

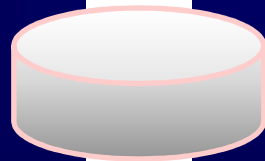

dass er Brot werde

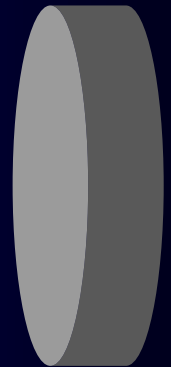

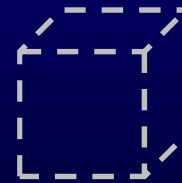

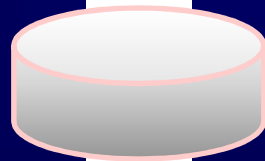

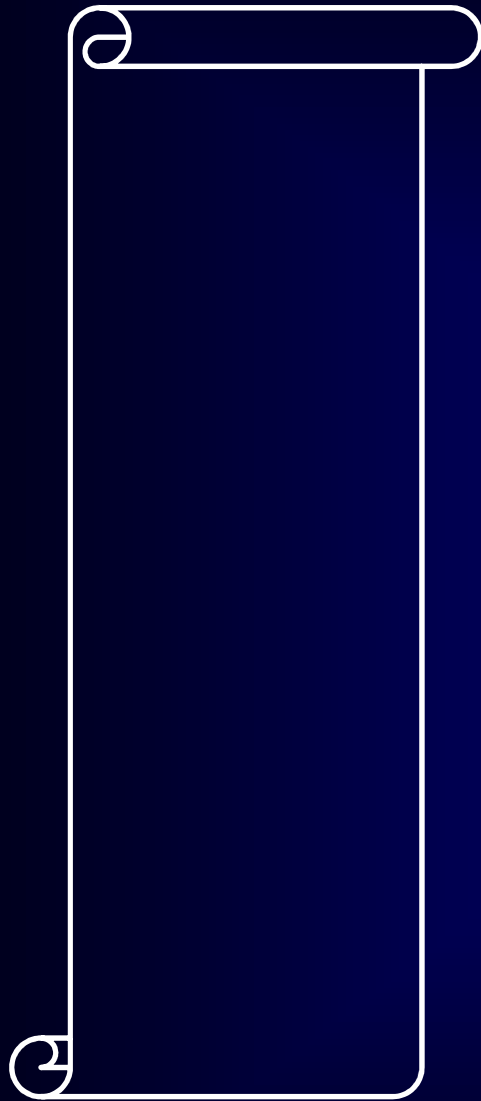

Da antwortete ihm Jesus

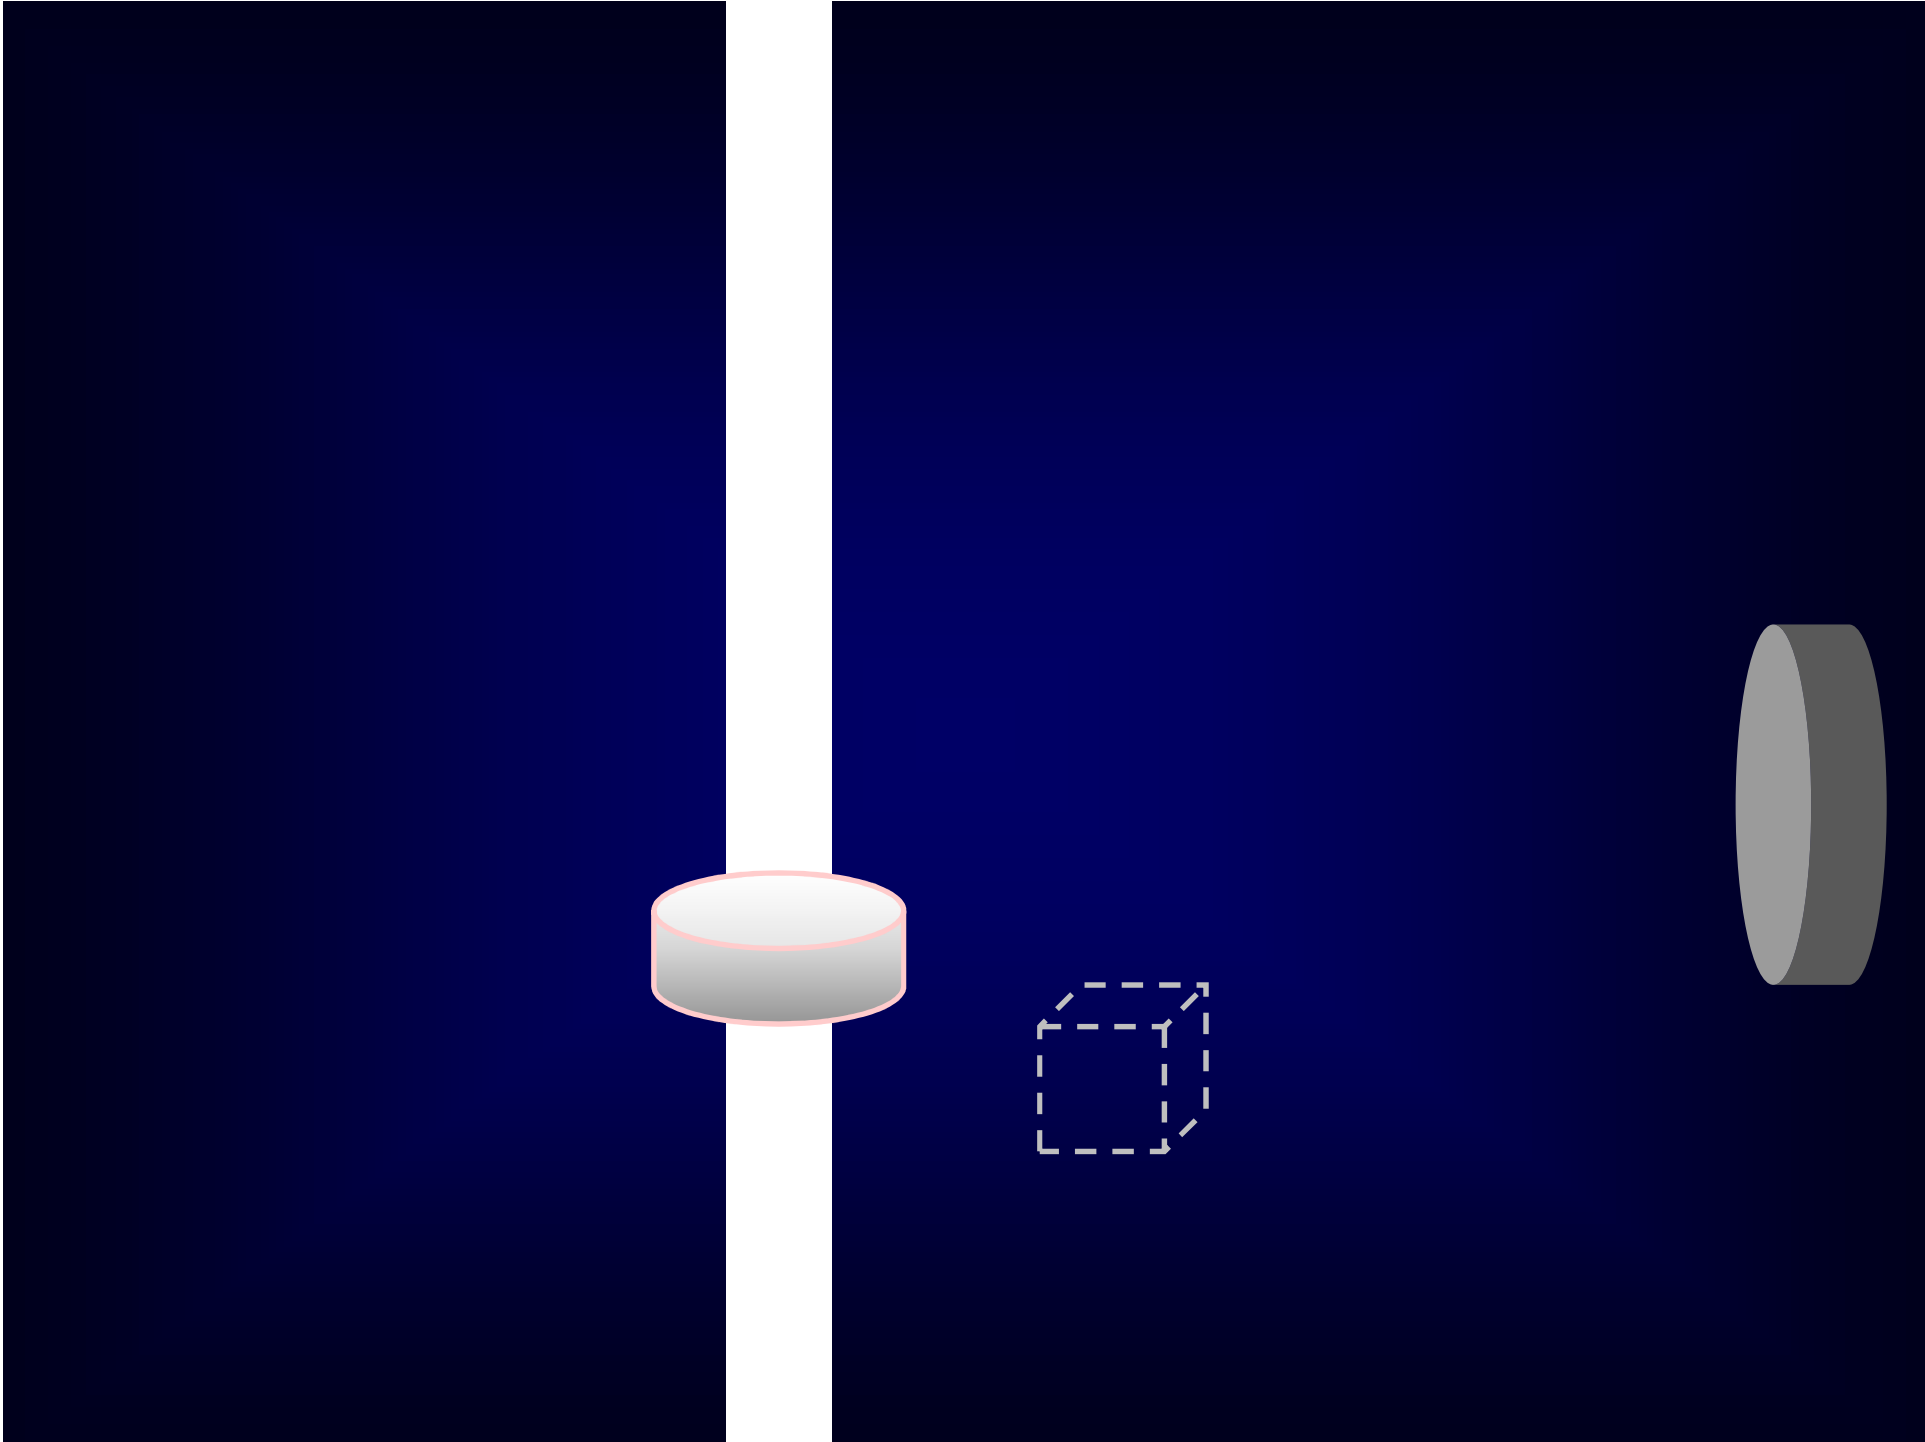

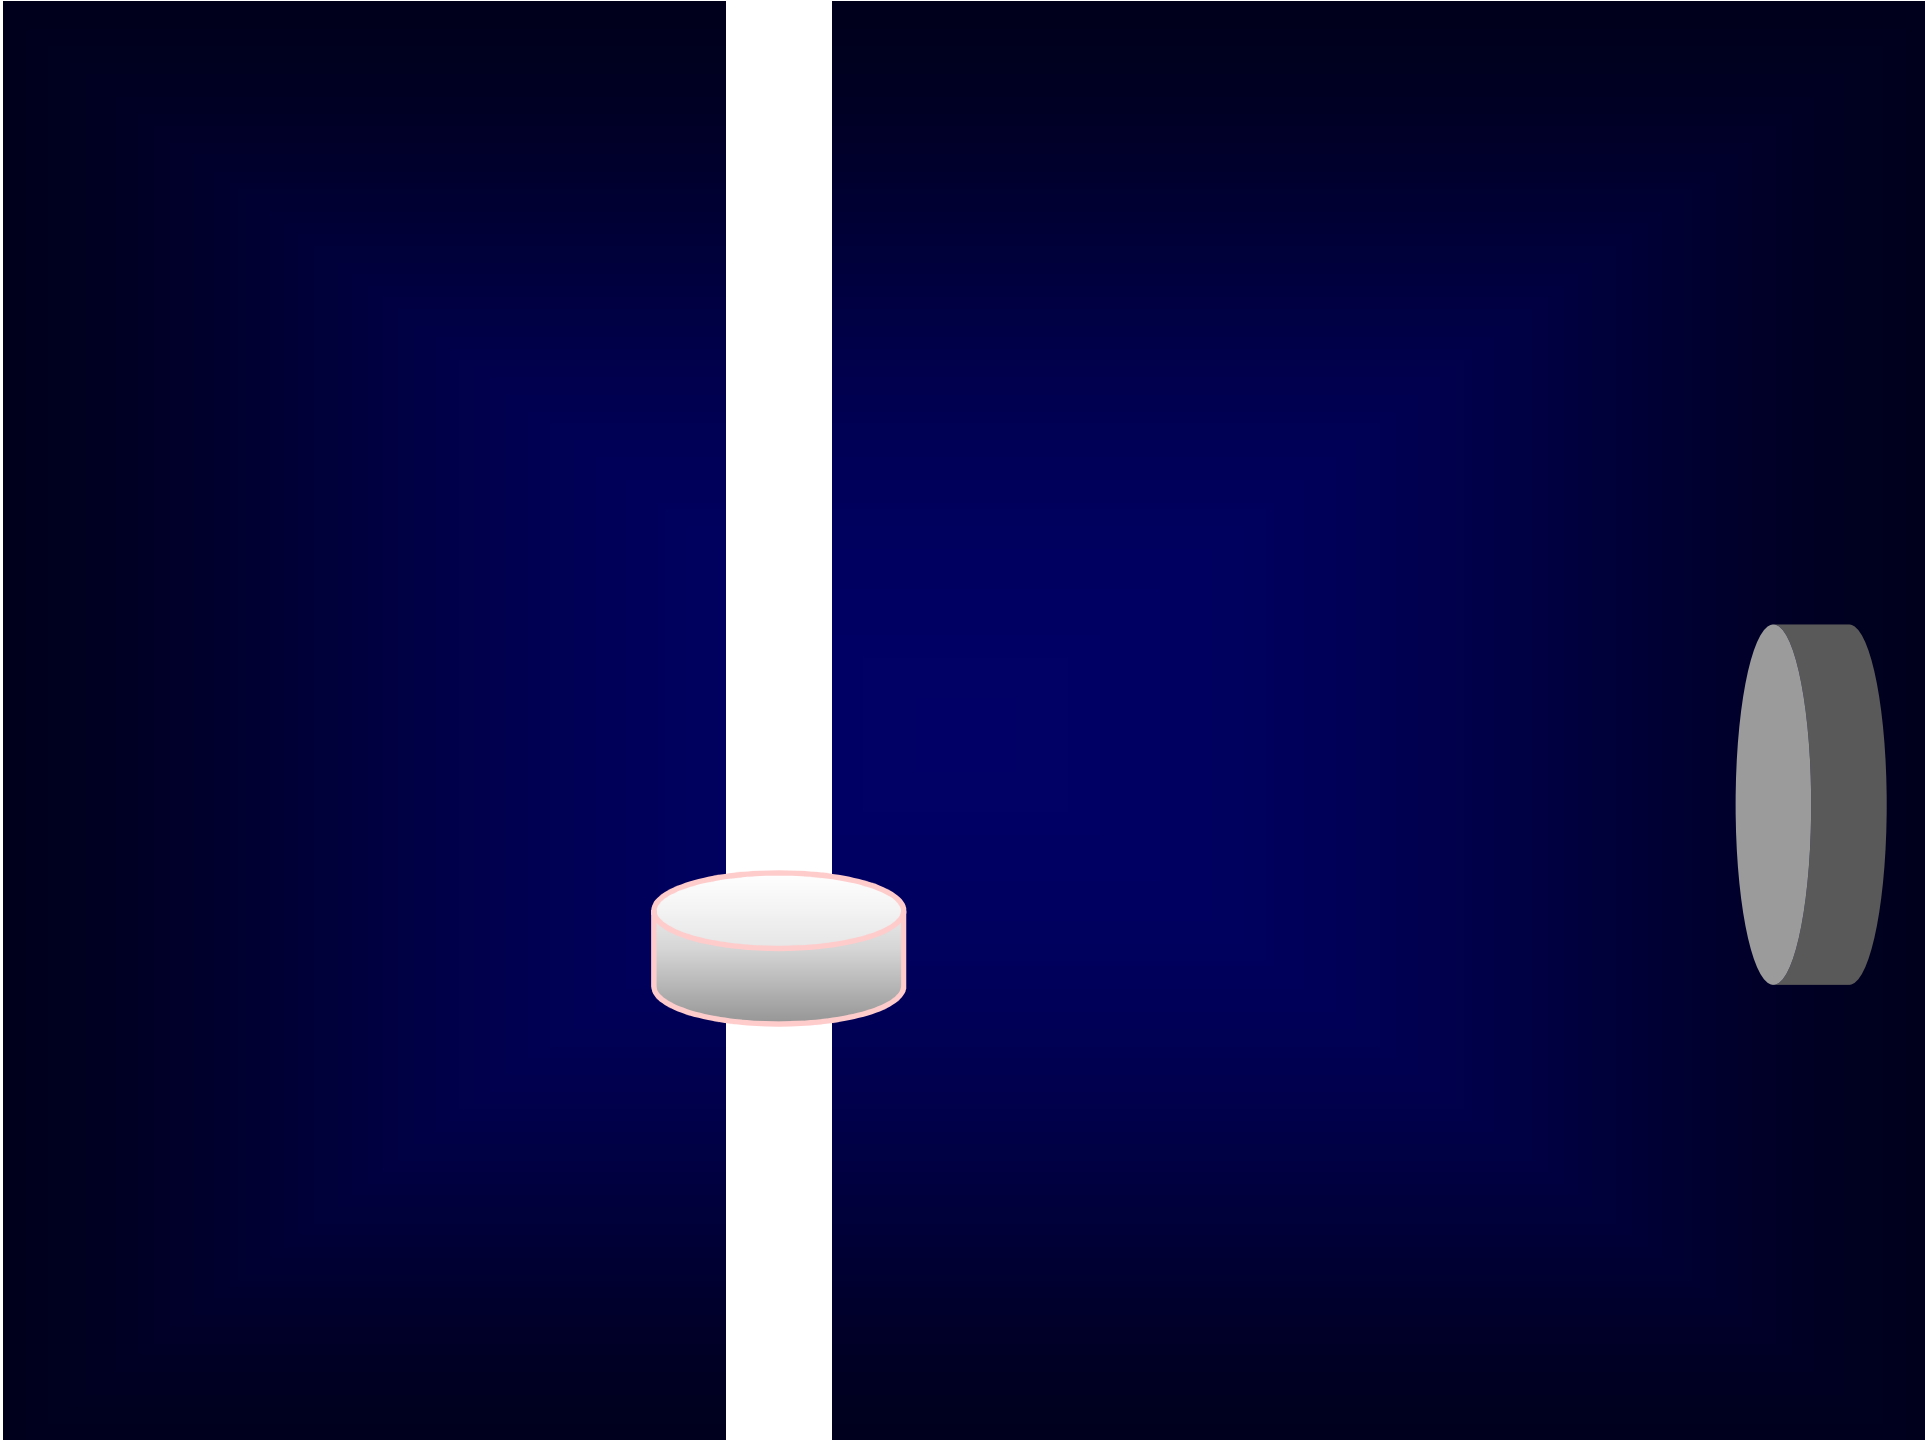

Es steht geschrieben

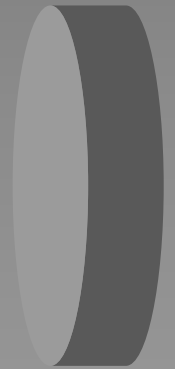

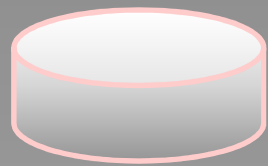

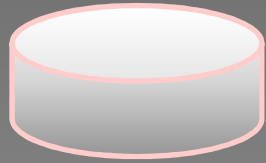

„Nicht vom Brot allein lebt der Mensch“

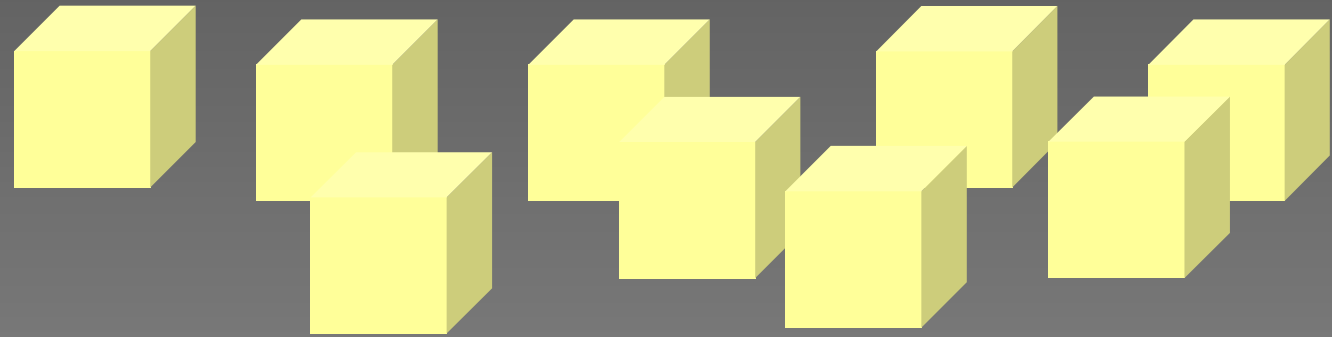

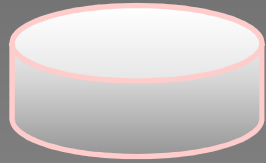

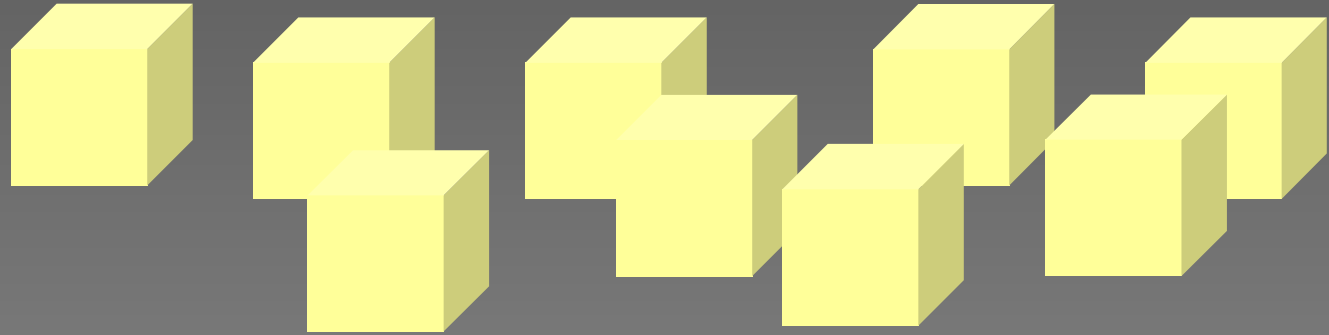

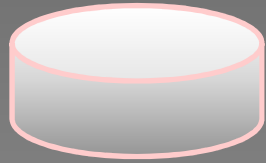

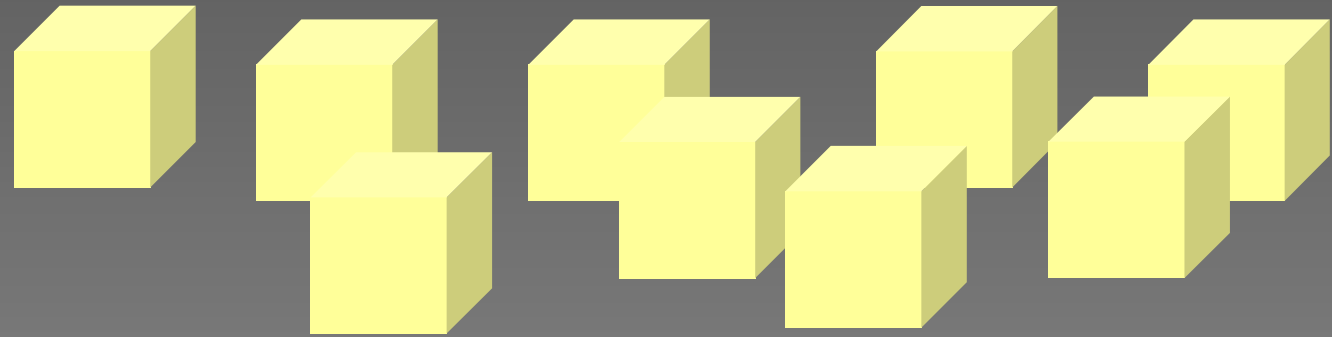

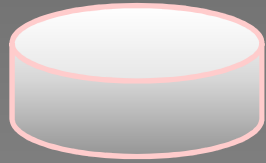

Dann führte er ihn hinauf

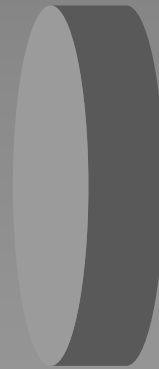

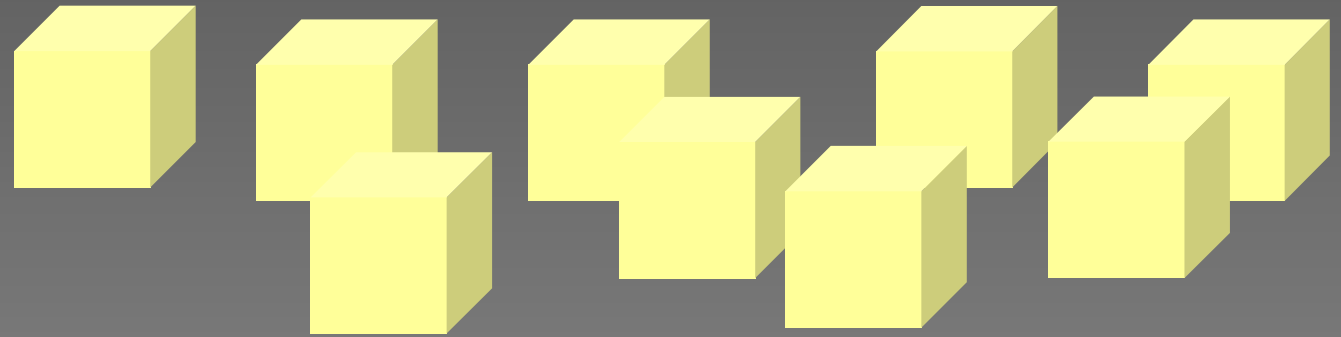

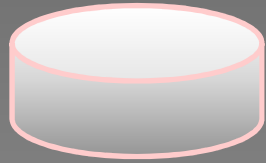

und zeigte ihm in einem Augenblick alle Reiche des Erdkreises und der Teufel sagte zu ihm:

Dir will ich alle diese Macht und Herrlichkeit geben denn sie ist mir verliehen und ich gebe sie, wem ich will

Wenn du also mir huldigst, soll sie ganz dein sein

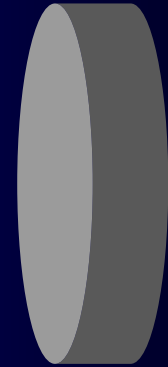

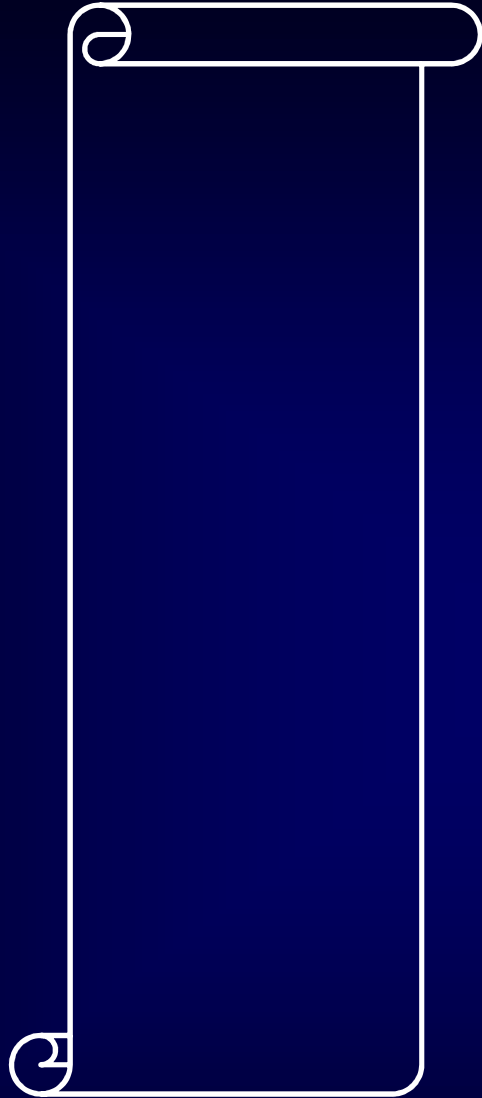

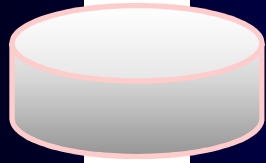

Da entgegnete ihm Jesus:

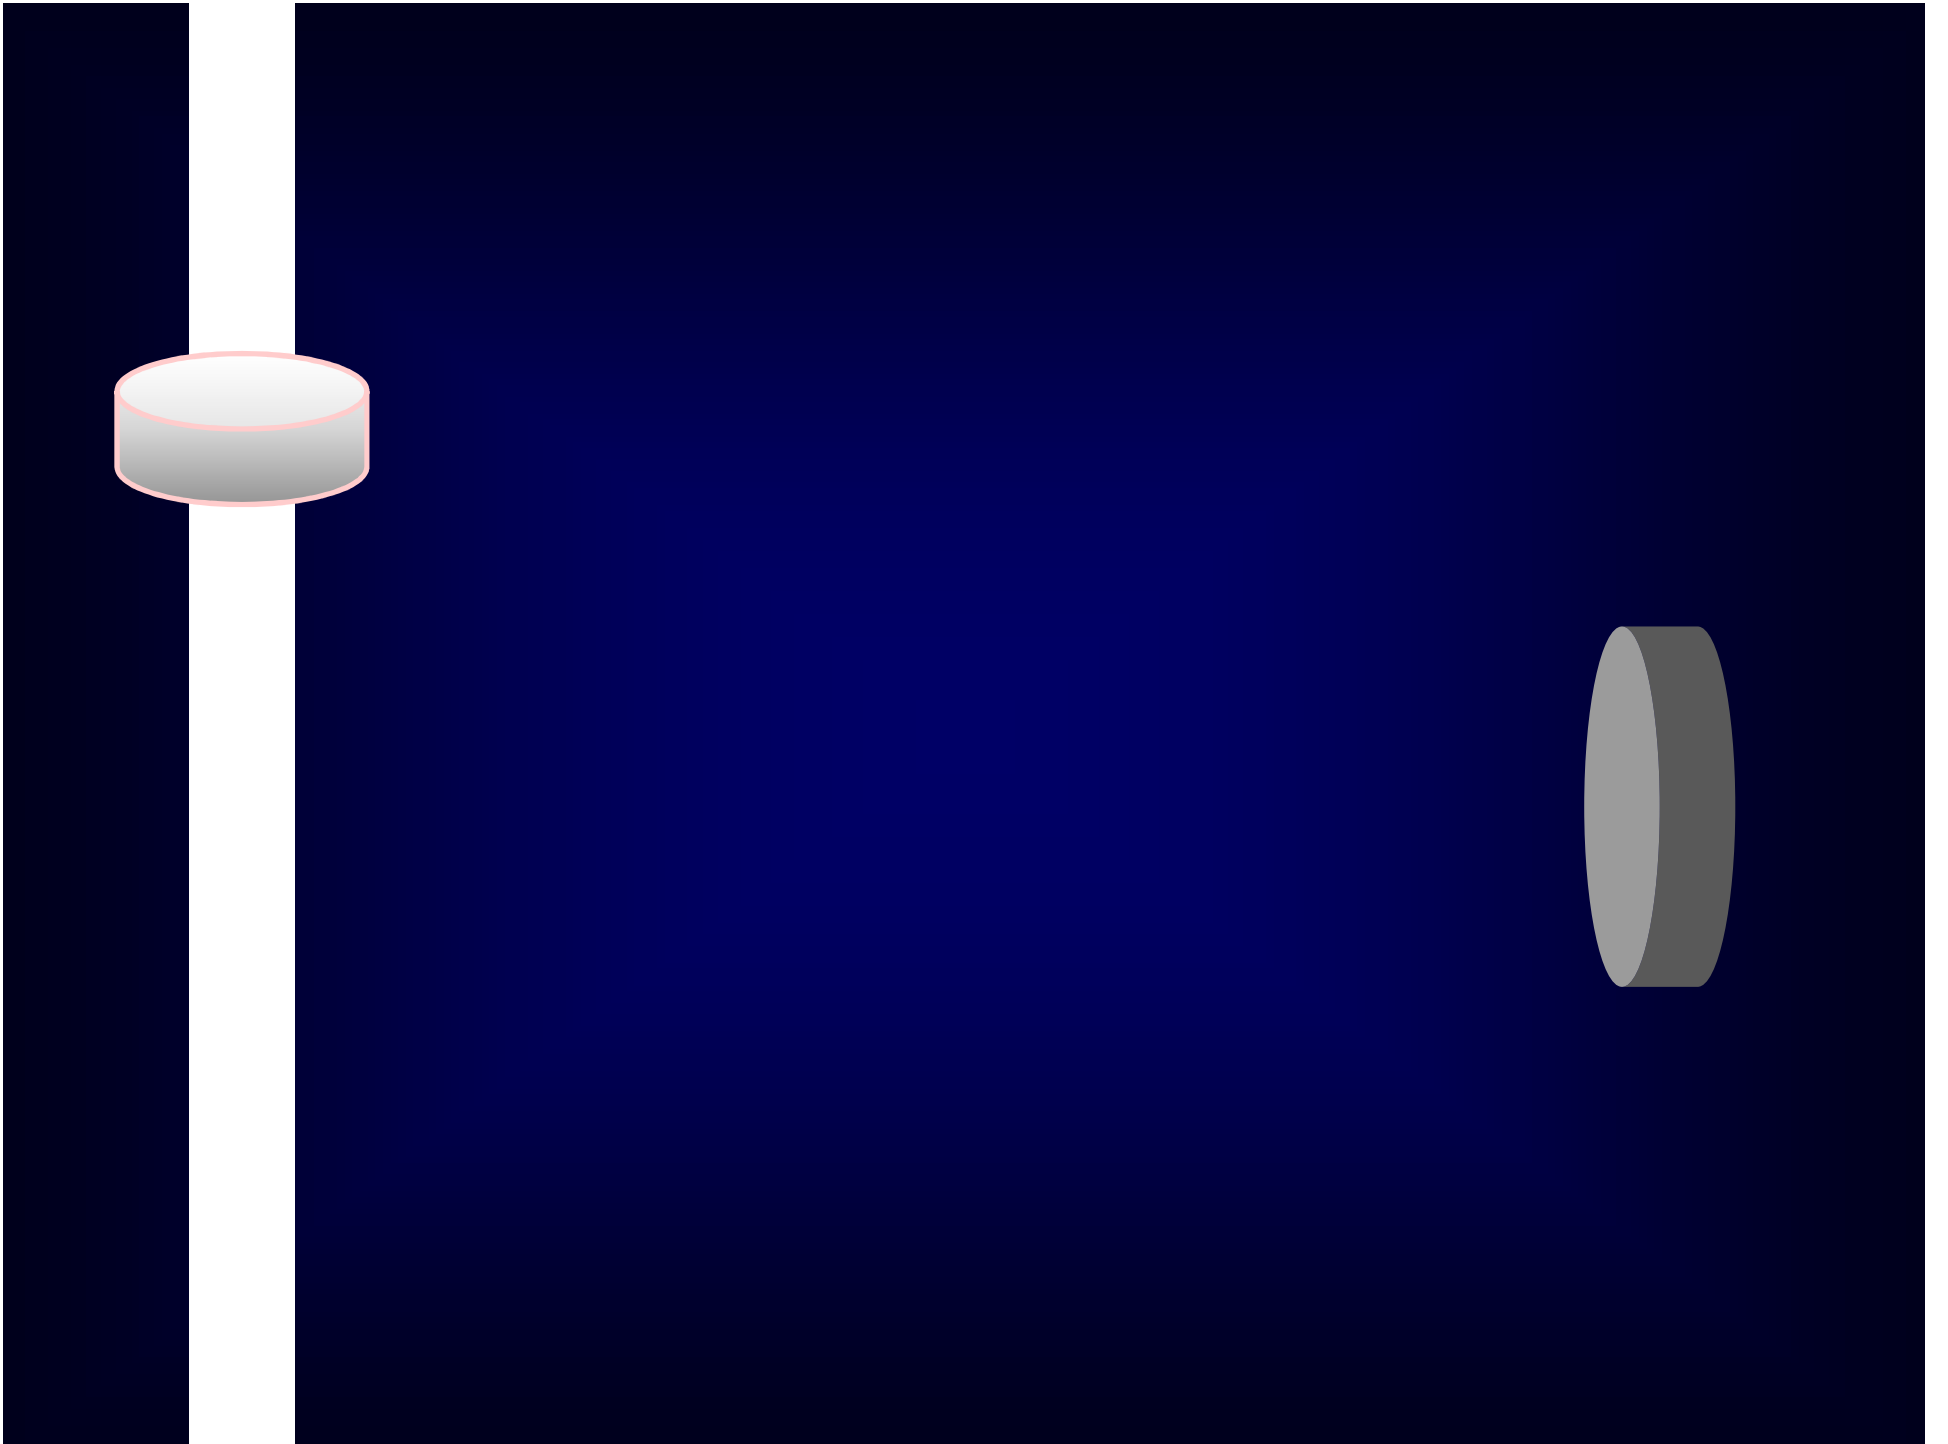

Es steht geschrieben:

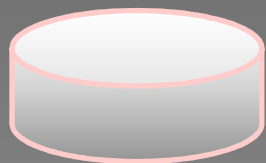

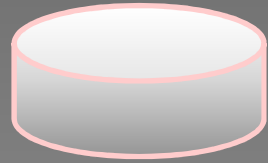

„Du sollst dem Herrn, deinem Gott, huldigen

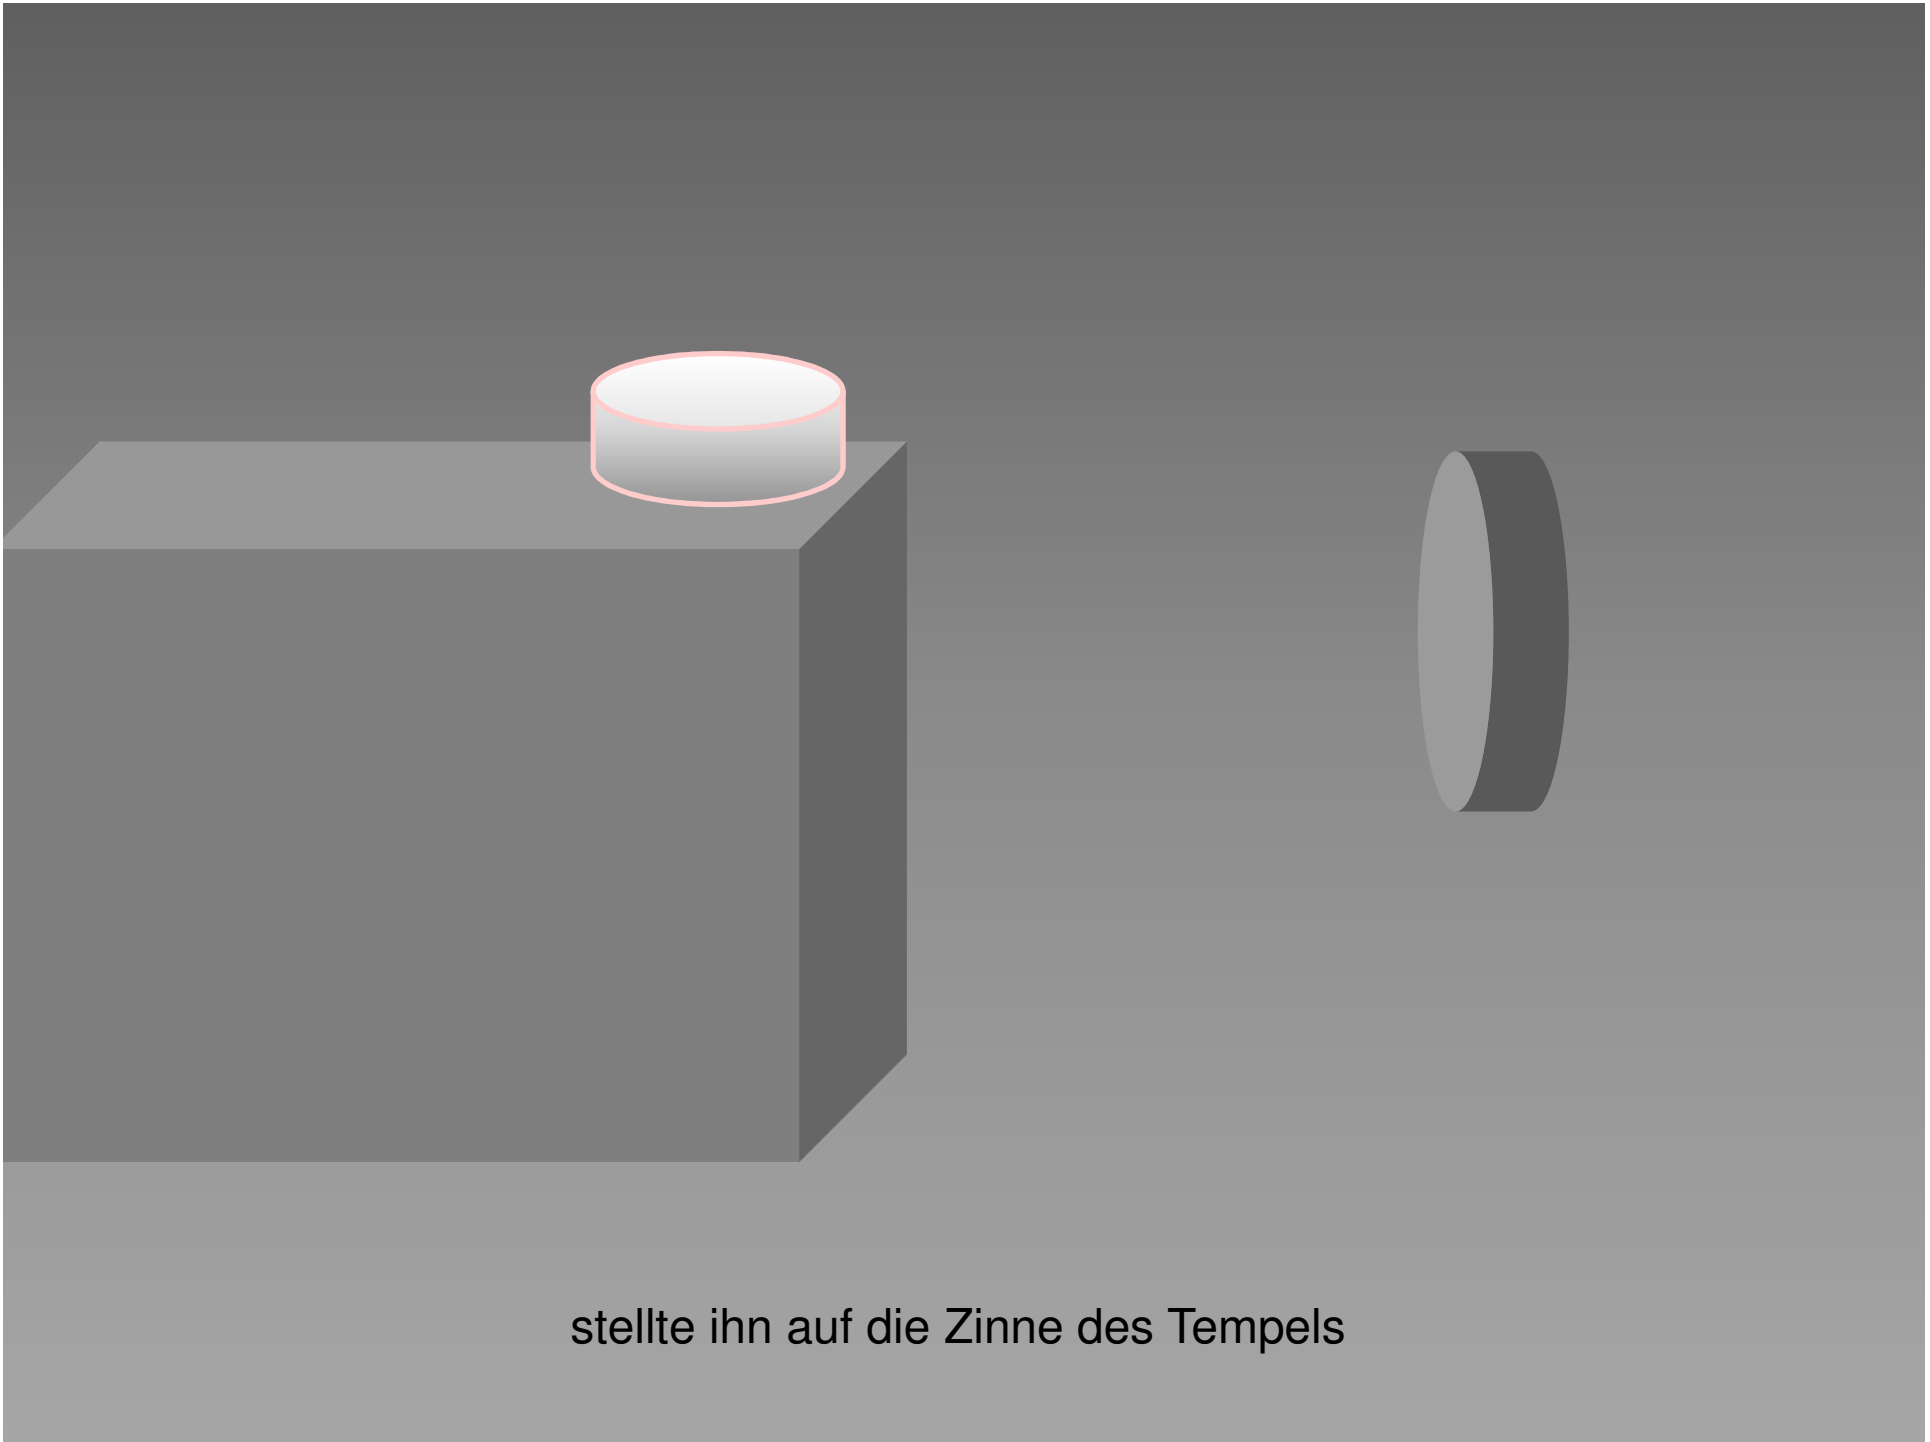

und ihm allein dienen“

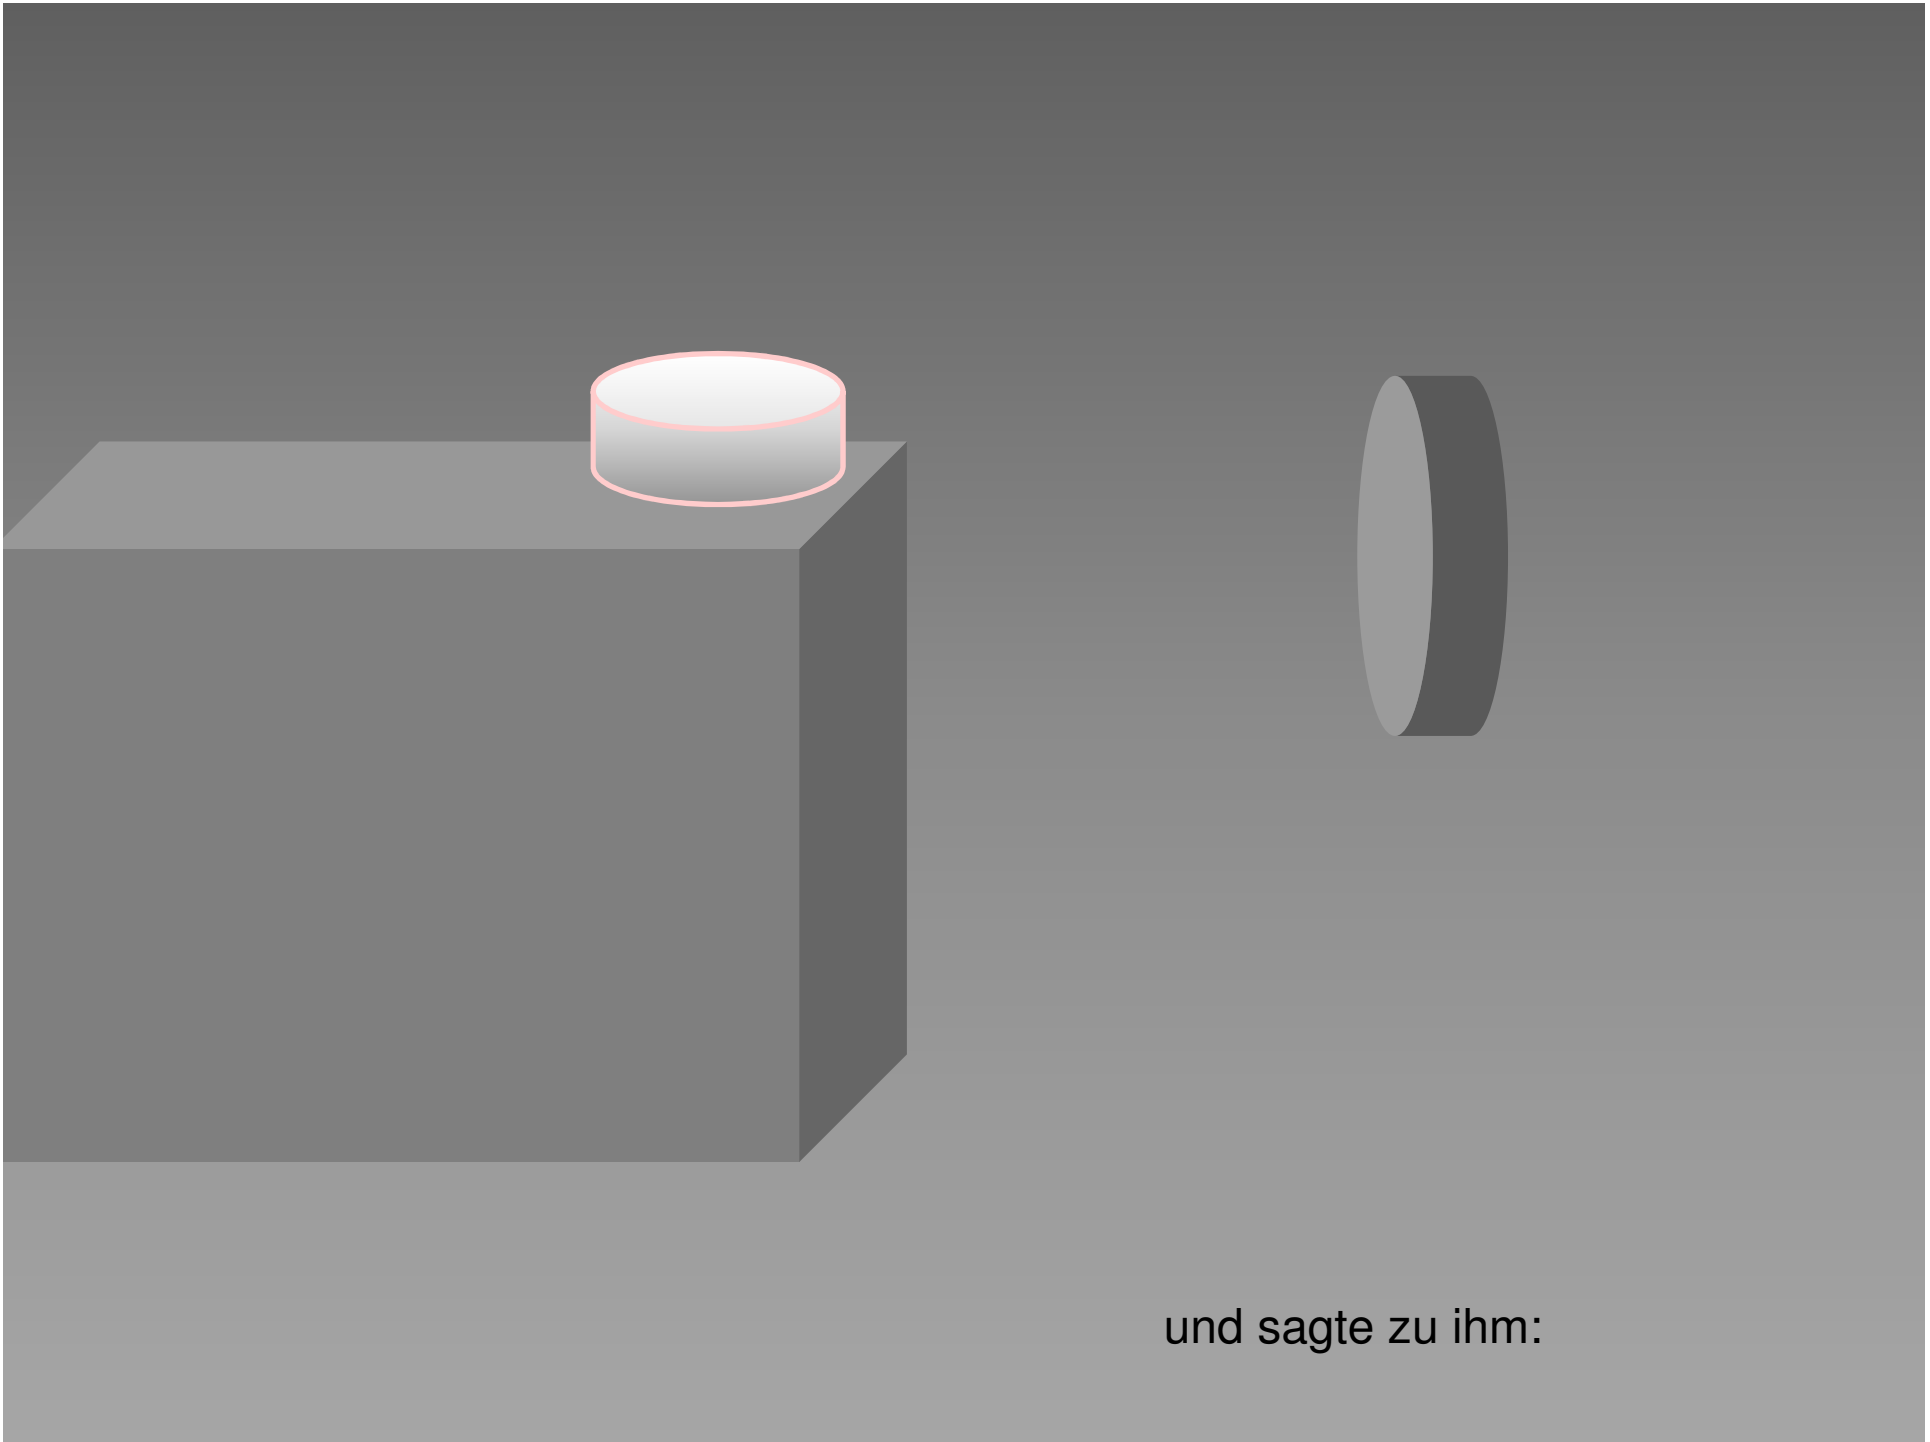

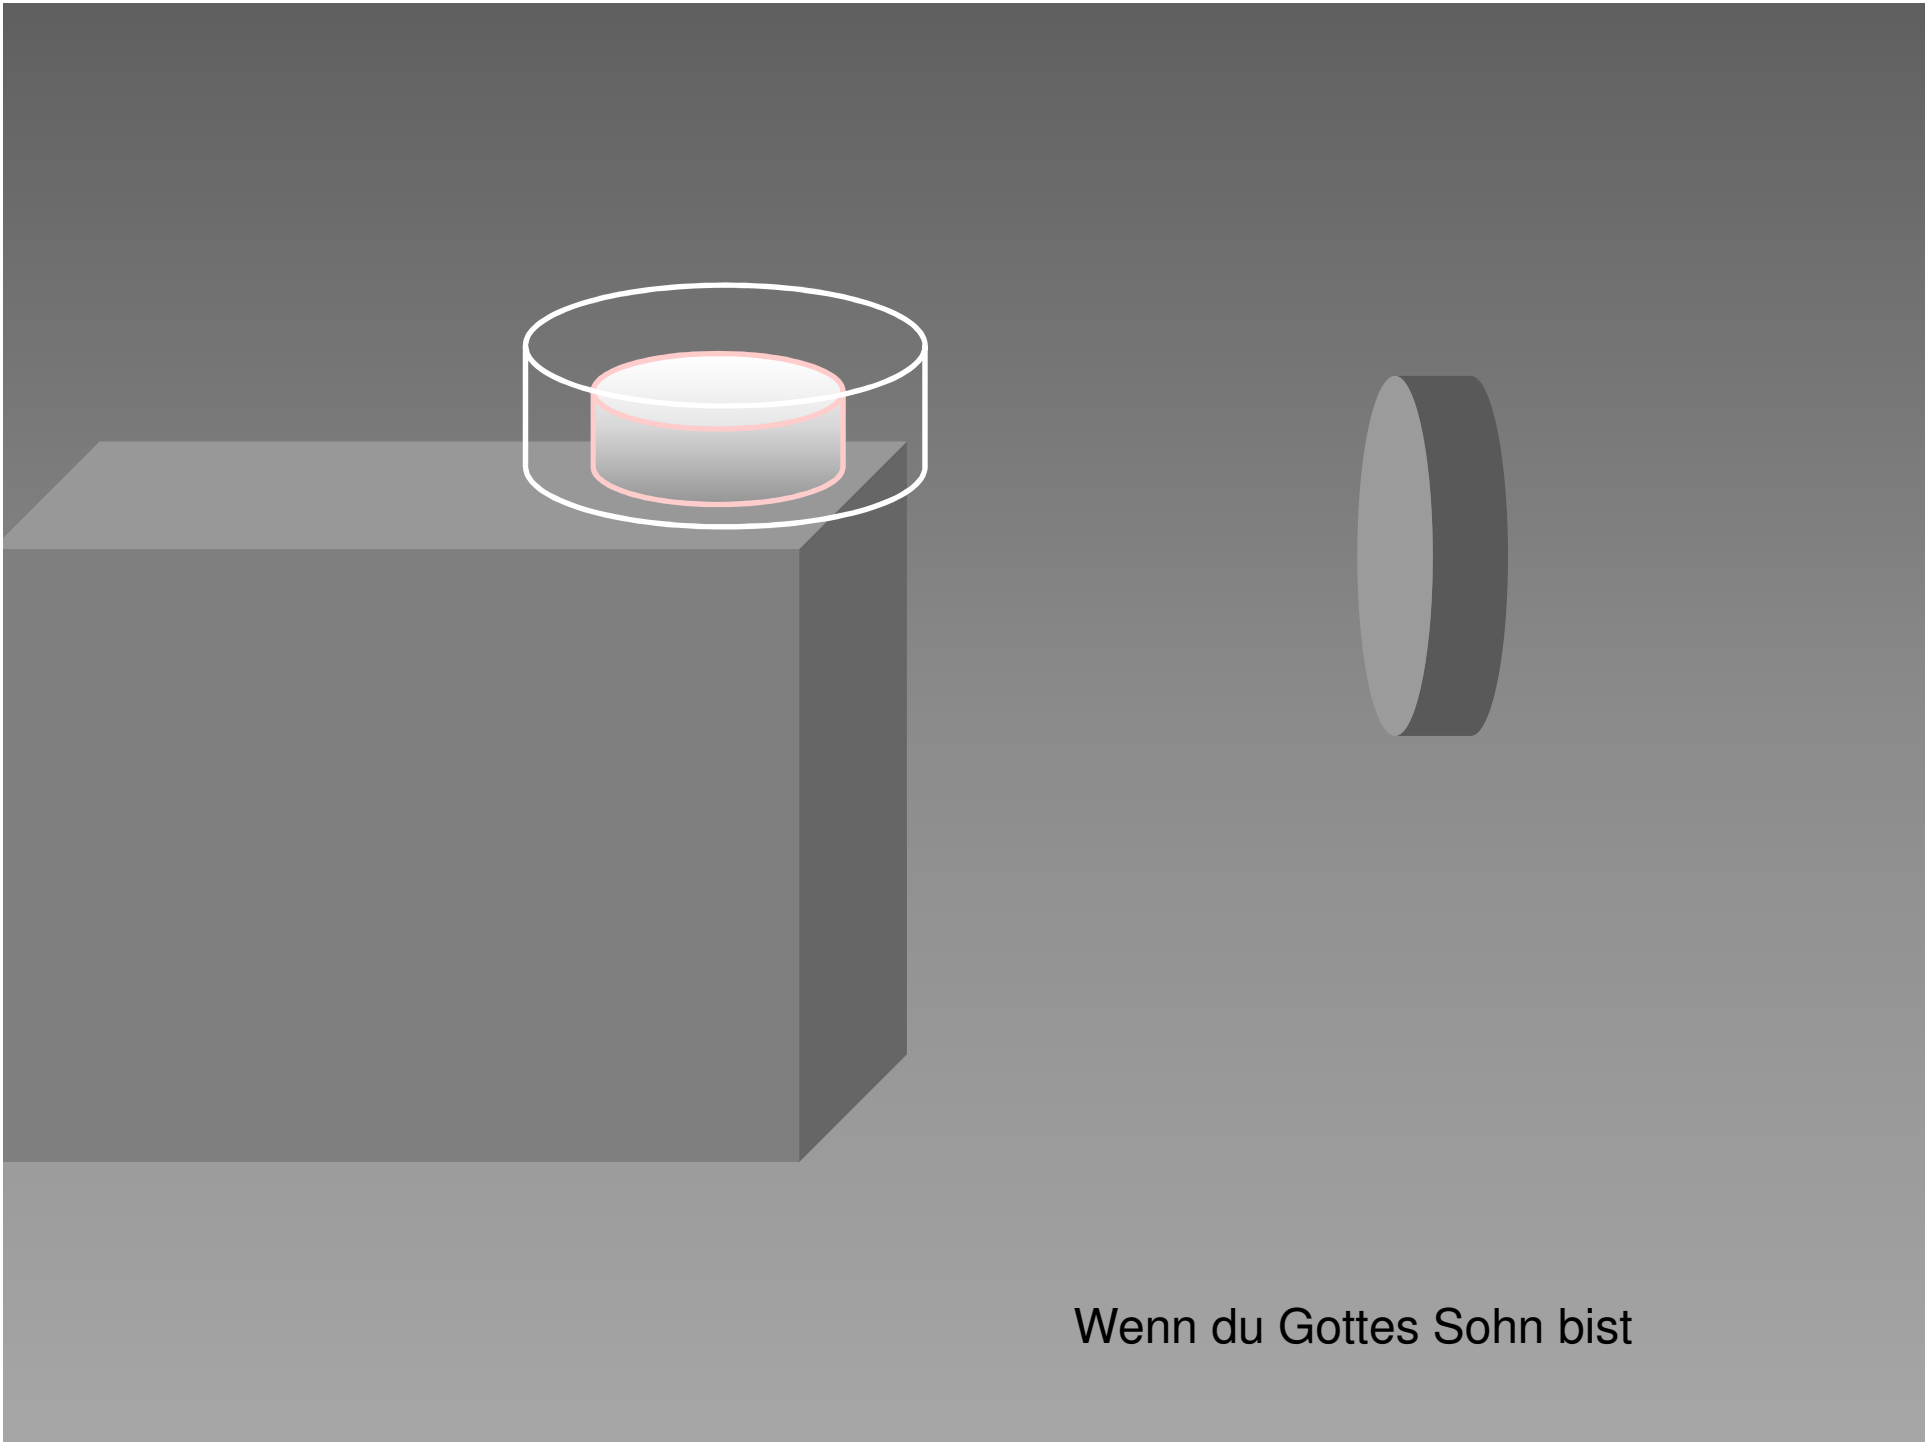

Da führte er ihn nach Jerusalem

stellte ihn auf die Zinne des Tempels und sagte zu ihm:

Wenn du Gottes Sohn bist

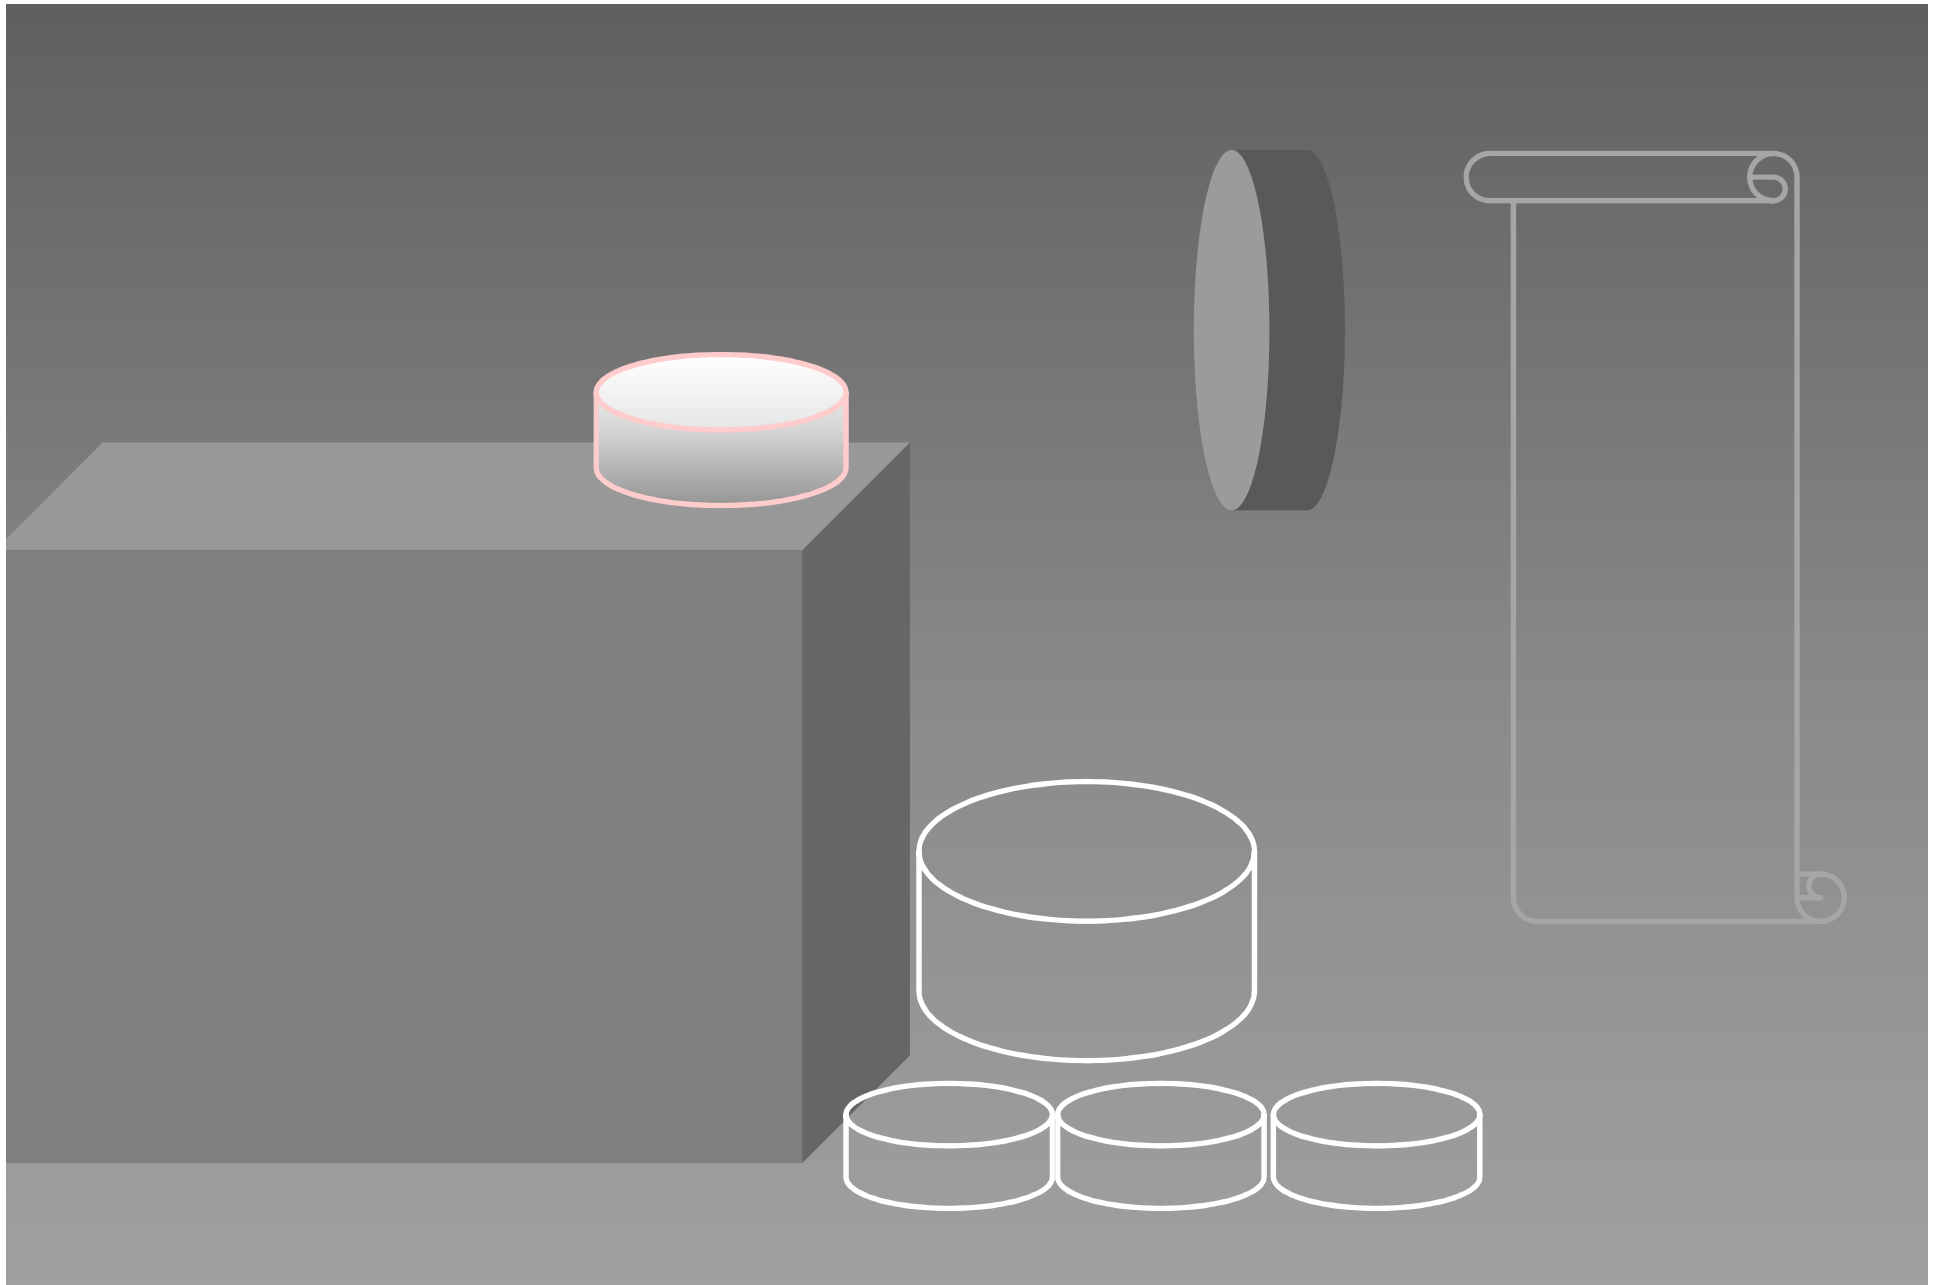

stürze dich von hier hinab

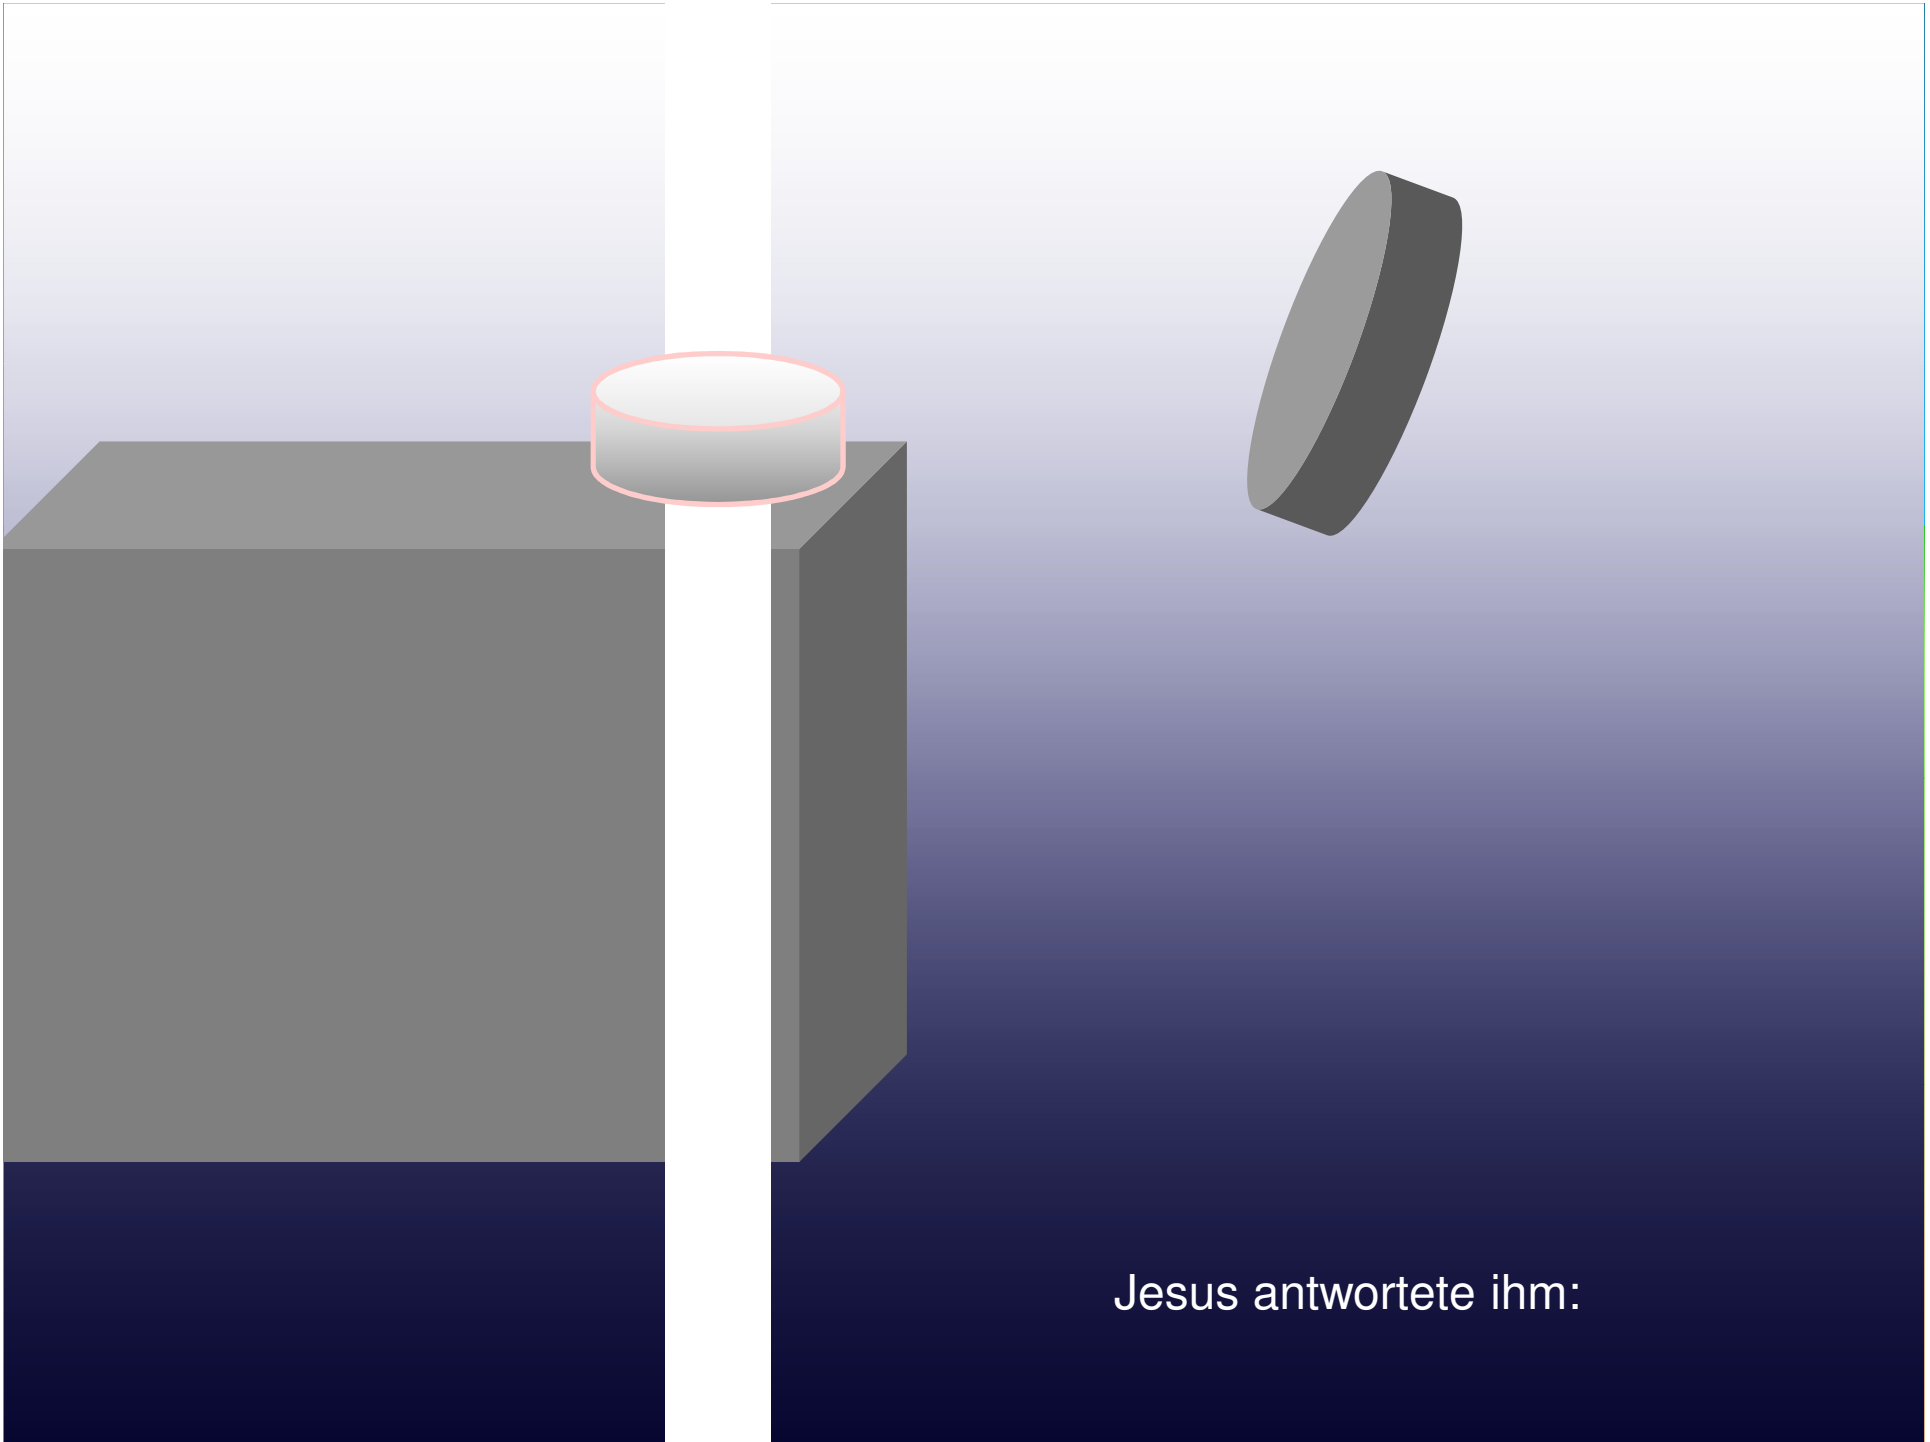

Denn es steht geschrieben:

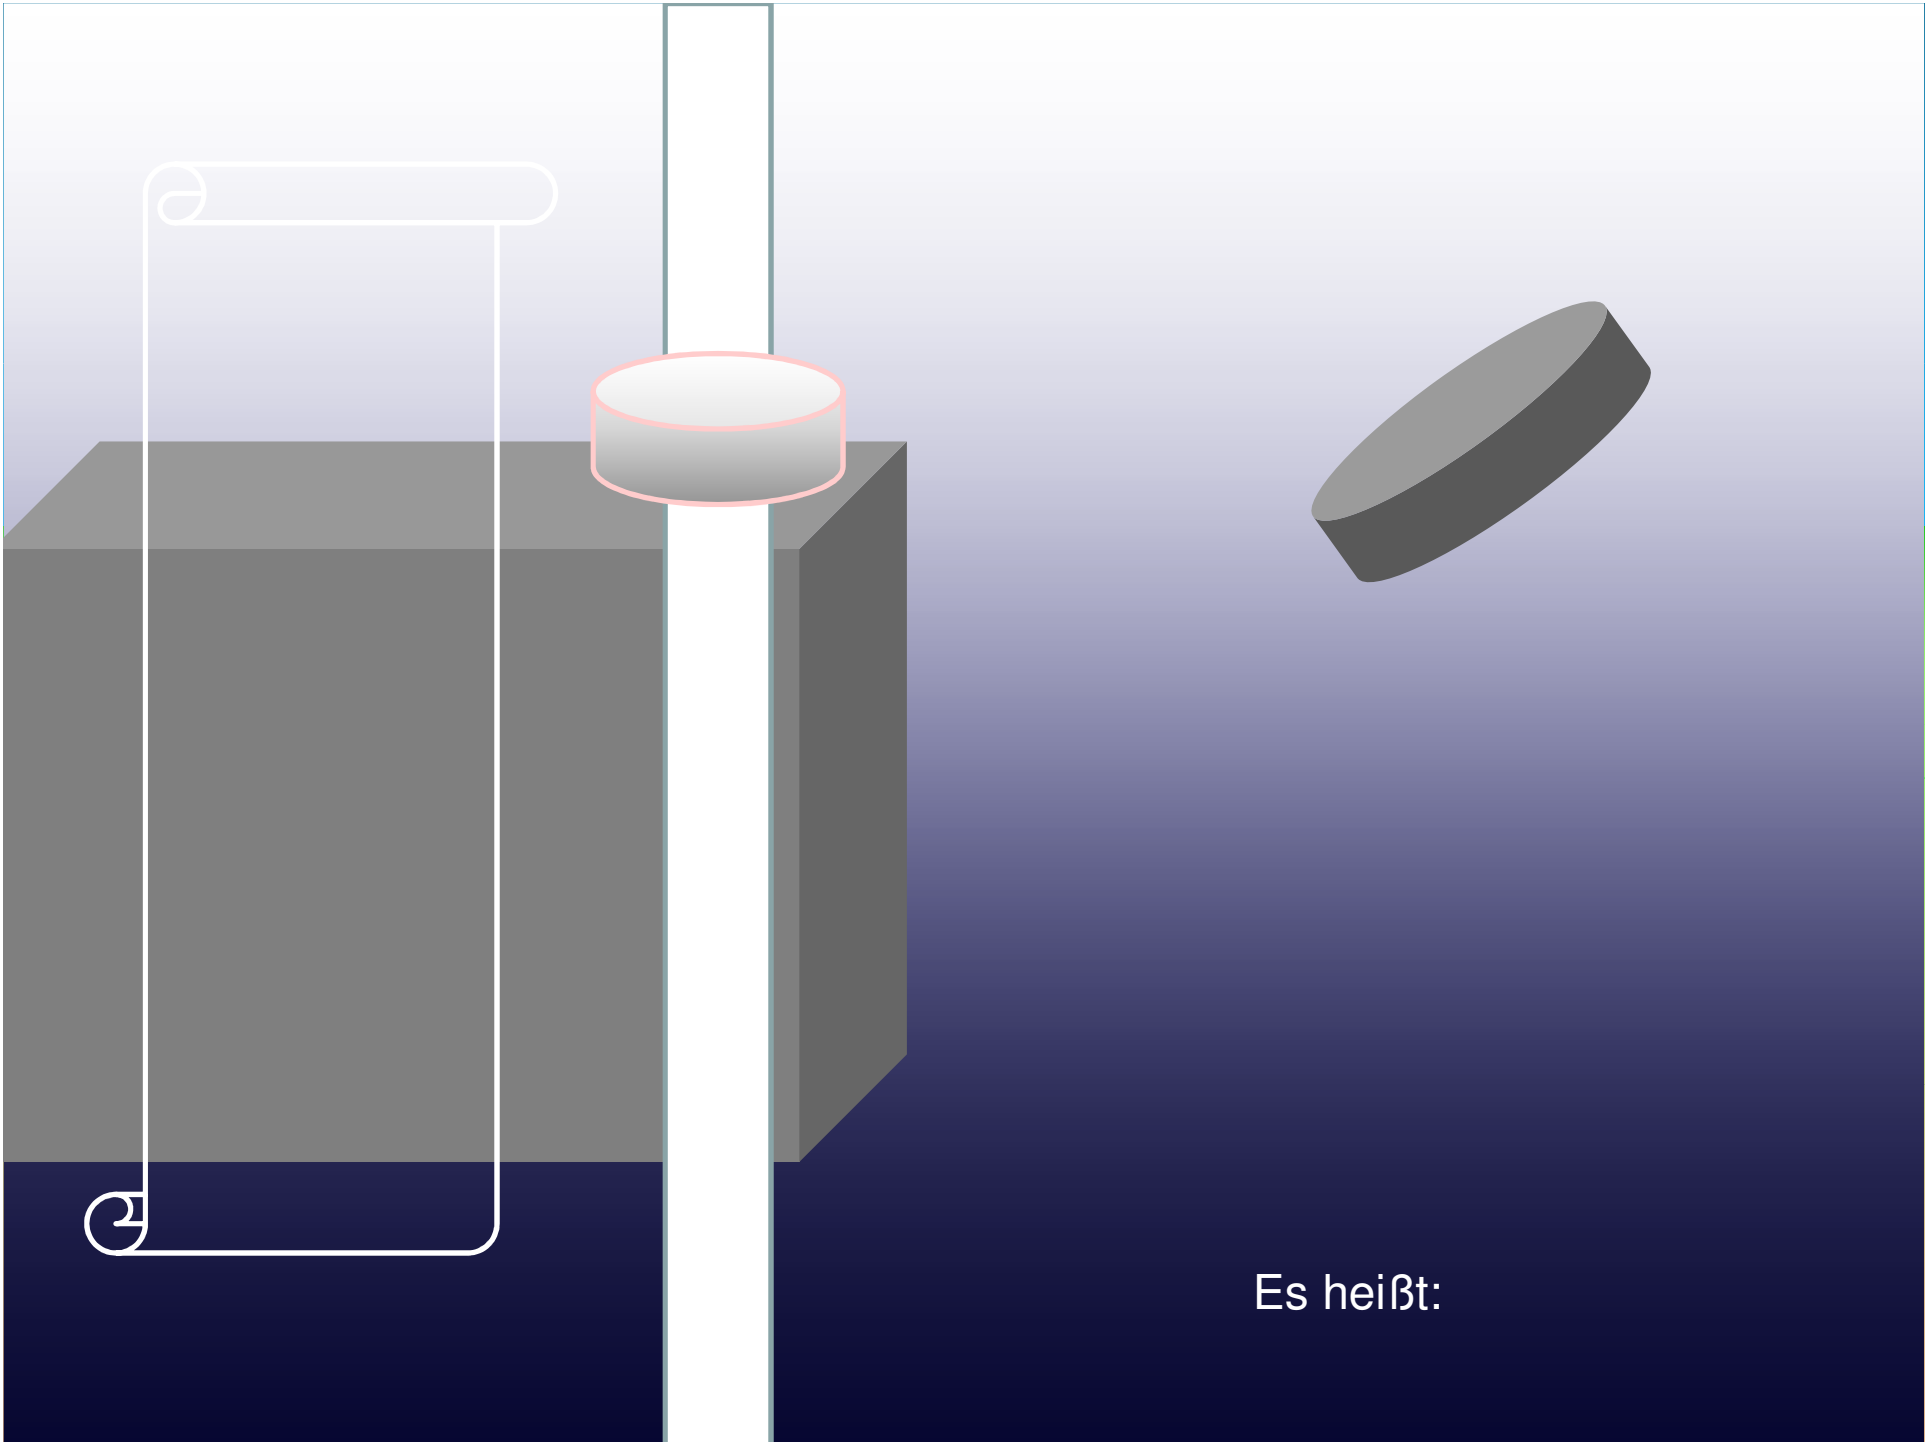

„Seinen Engeln wird er dich anbefehlen, dich zu behüten

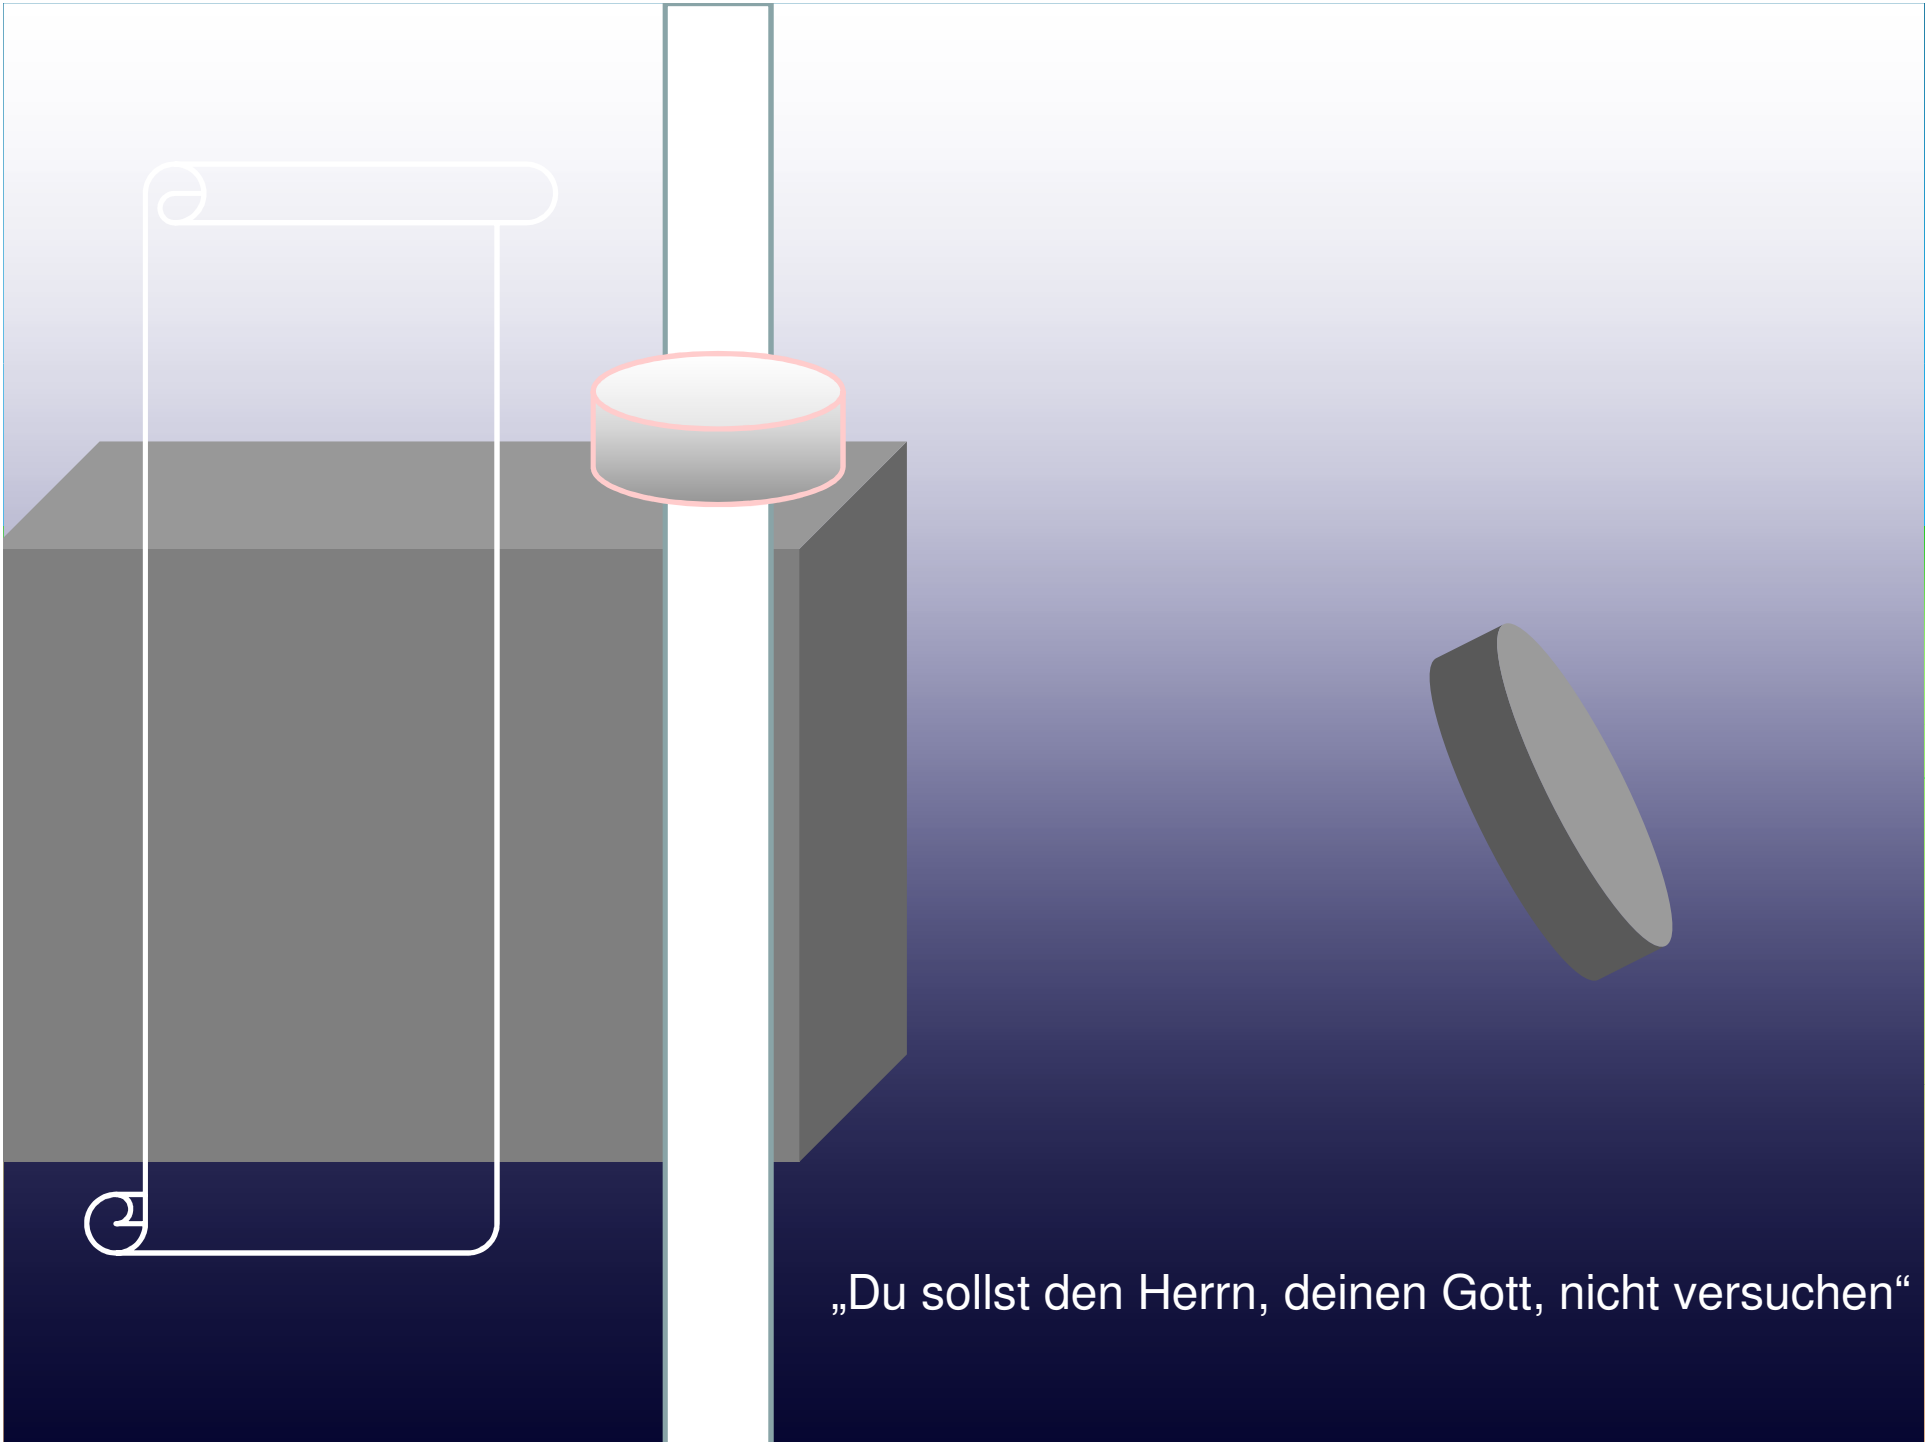

Auf den Händen werden sie dich tragen, damit du deinen Fuß an keinen Stein stoßest“

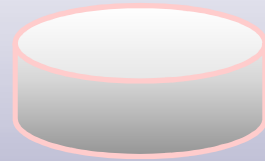

Jesus antwortete ihm:

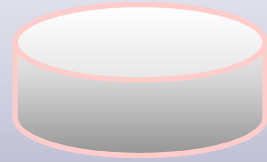

Es heißt:

„Du sollst den Herrn, deinen Gott, nicht versuchen“

Und als der Teufel mit aller Versuchung zu Ende war

ließ er ab von ihm bis zu seiner Zeit
